Recent Social Trends In Italy 1960 1995:

Recent Social Trends in Italy, 1960-1995 Alberto Martinelli, Antonio M. Chiesi, Sonia Stefanizzi, 1999 Italy remains an enigma for many observers Recent Social Trends in Italy 1960 1995 the sixth volume from the international Comparative Charting of Social Change program provides a new and convincing schema for its comprehension It shows that three essential institutions have structured and unified Italian society the family the church and political parties While the state remains a weak institution it is important as a regulator of the economy and of society through the welfare state The book which contains a long introduction by Alberto Martinelli on the uneven modernization of Italy shows the usefulness of analysing social change through study of a series of macro social trends These trends range from life style structures to fertility leisure consumption inequality religion and family among others This sixth national profile provides more arguments in favour of a hypothesis of diversification rather than convergence of modern societies As Henri Mendras writes in the preface of the book The more we change the more we remain ourselves that is the conclusion of our comparative research and the Italian study provides further ample proof of it Italy in the Modern World Linda Reeder, 2019-12-12 Providing a comprehensive history of Italy from around 1800 to the present Italy in the Modern World traces the social and cultural transformations that defined the lives of Italians during the 19th and 20th century The book focuses on how social relations class gender and race science and the arts shaped the political processes of unification state building fascism and the postwar world Split up into four parts covering the making of Italy the liberal state war and fascism and the republic the text draws on secondary literature and primary sources in order to synthesize current historiographical debates and provide primary documents for classroom use There are individual chapters on key topics such as unification Italians in the world Italy in the world science and the arts fascism the World Wars the Cold War and Italy in the 21st century as well as a wealth of useful features for students including Comprehensive bibliographic essays covering each of the four parts 23 images and 12 maps Italy in the Modern World also firmly places both the nation and its people in a wider global context through a distinctly transnational approach It is essential reading for all students of modern Italian history Multicultural Variations Lance Roberts, Barry Ferguson, Mathias Bös, Susanne Von Below, 2013-06-03 Contrary to mid twentieth century predictions ethnic pluralism has increased dramatically in North America and significantly in Europe Neither the post 9 11 emphasis on international border security nor anti immigration and anti multiculturalism movements have affected the fifty year trend of increasing labour mobility and sustained levels of migration The ethnic pluralism accompanying this powerful trend has fueled academic research and public debate Contributors report on and develop a conceptualization of ethnic social incorporation and multiculturalism in Canada the United States Germany Greece Bulgaria and Italy This group of countries displays a remarkable variety of both ethnic diversity and public policy responses to ethnic social incorporation over the past four decades It includes two countries Canada and the United States built upon very large scale immigration over the course of more than a century two countries Greece and Italy which until recently were characterized by large scale emigration but now are grappling with immigration one country Bulgaria that was until the 1990s insulated from extensive migration and faces a demographic slump and one Germany that has experimented with isolating temporary populations but is now addressing the responsibilities of permanent immigration

Multicultural Variations includes national reports describing each of the six countries under investigation and is book ended by introductory and concluding chapters that present a new understanding of and synthesis on multiculturalism that is distinct from either enthusiastic support or ideological critiques Contributors include Mathias B s Philipps Universit t Marburg Germany Antonio Chiesi Universit degli Studi di Milano Italy Jason Edgerton University of Manitoba Canada Barry Ferguson University of Manitoba Canada Nikolai Genov Freie Universit t Berlin Germany Louis Hicks St Mary s College of Maryland USA Paul Kingston University of Virginia USA Laura Maratou Alipranti National Centre for Social Research Athens Greece Lance W Roberts University of Manitoba Canada Sonia Stefanizzi Universit degli Studi di Milano Bicocca Italy and Susanne von Below Johann Wolfgang Goethe Universit t Frankfurt Germany

Changing Structures of Inequality Yannick Lemel, Heinz-Herbert Noll, 2002 The international sociological community has engaged recently in a controversial discussion on social inequality There is a vigorous debate on whether the traditional concepts of social class and social stratification are still useful Some researchers argue that social classes still offer a key explanation to social inequalities while others challenge the long standing tradition of class analysis New approaches have been proposed to describe recent social changes in the stratification system vanishing middle class two thirds societies cosmographic inequality and classless society among others

Leviathan Transformed Theodore Caplow, 2002-01-16 The authors using these goals as a checklist found that each of the seven states performs well in some areas and badly in others They discovered that all states approached these goals in a style shaped by their own history and in particular by how they have been affected by the troubles of the twentieth century Their investigations offer a new informative way of looking at these nation states and detail the social and political conditions in each state Contributors include Theodore Caplow Salustiano Del Campo Royal Academy of Political and Social Science Madrid Nikolai Genov Bulgaria Academy of Sciences Karl Otto Hondrich Goethe University Simon Langlois Universit de Laval Alberto Martinelli University of Milan and Henri Mendras OFCE Paris

Camorristi, Politicians, and Businessmen Felia Allum, 2006 This work presents a detailed study of the political role of a criminal organization the Neapolitan Camorra in its historical context that of Naples over the last fifty years In Campania until 1991 the population tacitly accepted the relationship between the Camorra and the local political elite based on the exchange of votes for state contracts and protection and because of the lack of reliable sources it could not seriously be studied by political scientists In 1991 however a law was passed which gave generous remission of sentences to criminals who wanted to cooperate with the police Following this many members of the Camorra revealed important aspects of the criminal economic and political activities of their organization This new information has permitted a re examination of the Camorra and has provided material for the story to be told
