Queensland Motoring Dawn Richard McDonough,2015-03-01 Ever given a second thought to fuelling up at almost any street corner or buying your spare parts from a myriad of local suppliers Perhaps you ve been known to curse the state of our roads and the ever rising costs of running a car Even questioning what the authorities are doing about it Well spare a thought for those who started this motoring madness over a century ago Their lot was to overcome prevailing social and bureaucratic prejudices and that was before they even ventured out in their primitive vehicles to do battle with the rough tracks that were optimistically called roads In a state as large as Queensland it was inevitable that the motor car would take hold despite the naysayers This is the story of how it all started from the first sighting of a self propelled vehicle on a Brisbane street to the high adventure of cross country motoring in outback Queensland and even the odd interstate trip to the deep south These individuals were trail blazers in its truest sense Our forebears had the vision and gumption to see it through and you will be amazed at what they went through So get comfortable buckle up and enjoy the ride Barry

Wynn; Or, The Adventures of a Page Boy in the United States Congress George Barton,2019-12-12 In Barry Wynn Or The Adventures of a Page Boy in the United States Congress George Barton delves into the intricate and bustling world of American politics through the eyes of a young protagonist This novel characterized by its vivid prose and engaging narrative style captures the spirit of the early 20th century political landscape intricately weaving themes of ambition loyalty and the moral dilemmas faced by those in power Set against the backdrop of the U S Congress the story transports readers into the heart of the legislative process showcasing both the grandeur and the complexities of governance while providing a youthful perspective on the political machinations at play Barton s keen observation and adept storytelling elevate this work beyond a mere coming of age tale placing it firmly within the canon of political literature that explores the intersection of youth and authority George Barton an ardent observer of societal structures and an advocate for civic engagement likely drew upon his own experiences with political life to write this compelling narrative His deep understanding of legislative responsibilities and the challenges faced by young idealists in such environments enrich the authenticity of the story Barton s scholarly pursuits and commitment to fostering civic awareness among youth reflect in Barry Wynn offering not just entertainment but also a stirring call for engagement in democratic processes For readers intrigued by the dynamics of power youthful ambition and moral complexity Barry Wynn is a must read This novel not only captivates with its adventurous narrative but also serves as a profound examination of the growth and development that occurs when one is immersed in the corridors of power It challenges readers to reflect on their own roles within society and inspires young minds to consider the implications of political engagement      Motoring the Future Engelbert Wimmer, 2011-11-30 The crisis in the auto industry has resulted in a race between Volkswagen as challenger and Toyota as tattered global market leader Whether it is the German or the Japanese firm that takes pole position the winner will change the balance of power in the automotive industry and lead the way to the automobiles of the future      Worcestershire's Motoring Heritage Martin P. Watts, 2014-08-15 From the Santler of 1889 to the Morgan of today Worcestershire can boast the longest period of involvement in the motor industry in Britain a timespan of 124 years      Mason's Motoring Mayhem! Tony Mason, 2019-11-29 What they say about Tony Mason Sir Stirling Moss I have always said that Movement is tranquility Well Tony has certainly had plenty of movement over the years but not a lot of tranquility I've known him more years than I care to remember and I know you'll enjoy this book Nick Mason of Pink Floyd Tony Mason sometimes accused of being my brother more often my elderly uncle He's an even worse drummer than I am although much better at rallying and presenting motoring programmes on TV His book should probably be nearly as good as mine Lewis Hamilton Formula 1 World Champion 2008 Tony is good fun and a great guy Derek Bell winner of the Le Mans 24 hour race five times Tony is one of the rare breed of men that can sit next to an out of control driver for several days and participate for a lifetime with that same passion and laugh about it Lord March Founder Goodwood Festival of Speed Tony has played a big and hilarious role in British motor sport over the past four decades This book is proof of that not to mention the enormous amount of fun he has obviously had putting this book together Andy Green the fastest man on earth Tony is one of those enthusiastic characters that you enjoy meeting Last time he put a microphone in my face I was climbing out of a rally car after an outrageously fast ride through the trees of Goodwood's rally stage Tony used to do this full time so I can confirm that he must be slightly mad Hannu Mikkola World Rally Champion 1983 I first met Tony many years ago before I could speak or understand any English He still made me laugh He has amazing stories to tell including those about when he co-drove for me in New Zealand on his last rally Few people achieve success and notoriety in more than one field but Tony Mason has managed it He joined a local car club before he even had a car eventually climbing to the top with rally wins in his native Lake District before joining the prestigious Ford works team and co-driving Britain's biggest rally star Roger Clark to win outright the RAC Rally Britain's toughest event of its kind He started a successful car accessory business then ventured onto the stage for a short while before being signed by the BBC to appear on its popular Top Gear programme on which he was a main presenter for 15 years His cheery presence became a popular part of the programme and he moved from rallying to driving all manner of vehicles from vintage Rolls Royces Reliant Robins tanks fire engines and Eddie Stobart trucks After he was famously bombarded with snowballs during a report on the Monte Carlo Rally he became even better known with the famous outtake being shown on programmes around the world Tony Mason's light-hearted jovial persona transfers from television to page in this autobiography taking readers on a trip from his early life in the seaside town of Morecambe through almost 100 countries with thrills spills ups and downs all vividly remembered and often shown in photographs Tony Mason's
