Under Grandad's Cap Patrick Behan,2017-07-13 Autobiographies are usually the preserve of celebrities or politicians those who were born great achieved greatness or had greatness thrust upon them Patrick Behan falls into none of the above categories In the 87 years he spent on this planet he lived an ordinary life seldom straying from his native Dublin He was not a witness to momentous events he simply got on with his life and raised his family as best he could A popular fallacy is that an ordinary life is by extension uninteresting In this random sequence of tales and reminiscences we are led through a life full of fascinating memories combined with recollections of a local history that is fast fading from human memory Whether it is driving the turf by horse and cart into Dublin city centre or watching film star Tom Mix ride a white horse up James Street in full cowboy regalia the reader is treated to a slice of Dublin life as seen from the point of view of one of its ordinary citizens
