My Life In The Pits:

Life in the Pits Brad Schaeffer,2023-12-05 In 1989 Brad Schaeffer was working as an artist when his trader brother invited him to visit the floor of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange Schaeffer promptly quit his job and became a clerk in that most iconic arena of raw capitalism During the next six years Schaeffer rose from clerk to trader making markets on Eurodollar options in Chicago and heating oil options in New York In that time jammed literally shoulder to shoulder he screamed flailed his arms hurled expletives and pushed and shoved his way through his day He was a keen observer of the methodology incidents and personalities that made the now extinct open outcry trading pits such a unique place to do business Life in the Pits recollects those last most glorious days when red faced alphas in colorful jackets performed thousands of transactions per hour even as computerized trading heralded the floors ultimate demise Schaeffer recalls the uneasy camaraderie of working right next to fierce competitors the sheer intensity of dealing in stacks of money changing hands with a simple scream or hand signal and the hijinks excesses and collection of characters as colorful as the jackets they wore giving the reader an intimate look into what life was like down in the financial mosh pits A worthy successor to Liar s Poker and Reminiscences of a Stock Operator Life in the Pits offers nuggets of wisdom on what makes a successful trader and the rules all must follow to survive in such an unforgiving environment Schaeffer s often hilarious yet sometimes profound reflections take us on his personal journey from penniless artist to moving millions of dollars worth of commodities in the blink of an eye courtesy of being thrown into the crucible of the trading floors that are no more and explore the lessons he learned along the way Brad s book about those now bygone days of the trading pits is both hilarious and insightful Anyone interested in how markets behave how to trade them and the broader life lessons such a stressful work environment imparted should add this easily digestible read to their collection of business literature I spent years on the floor and this fun and lighthearted reflection on those truly unique business venues brings it all back to life I highly recommend it J Robert is not about you its bigger then you it about God using your abilities to accomplish something that ONLY He can do through you Your potential is born inside of you a God dream is given to you everyone has potential but not you of us have a God dream This book dissects Josephs magnificent trip in accomplishing his God dream and shows us how to fulfill ours This book tells how you can like Joseph deal with your life pits and life prisons Get ready to change you life The Holy Bible in Modern English ,1913 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
