Red House Sarah Messer, 2005-06-28 In her critically acclaimed ingenious memoir Sarah Messer explores America's fascination with history family and Great Houses Her Massachusetts childhood home had sheltered the Hatch family for 325 years when her parents bought it in 1965 The will of the house's original owner Walter Hatch which stipulated Red House was to be passed down never to be sold or mortgaged from my children and grandchildren forever still hung in the living room In Red House Messer explores the strange and enriching consequences of growing up with another family's birthright Answering the riddle of when shelter becomes first a home and then an identity Messer has created a classic exploration of heritage community and the role architecture plays in our national identity The Red House Roz Watkins, 2023-06-22 Cleverly crafted twisty gripping and suspenseful B A Paris Only the killer holds the key The Red House on Rowan Street Lily A. the 1970s Claude Lévi-Strauss conceived of a form of social organization based upon the house societies in order to provide a classification for social groups that appeared not to conform to established anthropological kinship structures. In this approach the anchor point is the house understood as a conceptual resource that is a consequence of a strategy of constructing and legitimizing identities under ever shifting social conditions. Drawing on the results of an extensive program of fieldwork in the Bay of Firth Mainland Orkney, the text explores the idea that the physical appearance of the house is a potent resource for materializing the dichotomous alliance and descent principles apparent in the archaeological evidence for the early and later Neolithic of Orkney. It argues that some of the insights made by Lévi-Strauss in his basic formulation of house societies are extremely relevant to interpreting the archaeological evidence and providing the parameters for a social narrative of the material changes occurring in Orkney between the 4th and 2nd millennia cal BC. The major excavations undertaken during the Cuween Wideford Landscape Project provided an unprecedented depth and variety of evidence for Neolithic occupation bridging the gap between domestic and ceremonial architecture and form exploring the transition from wood to stone and relationships between the living and the dead and the role of material culture. The results are described and discussed in detail here enabling tracing of the development and fragmentation of house societies over a 1500 year period of Northern Isles prehistory. 100 Gennaro Postiglione, 2004. This volume features 100 homes of different architects.

The Red House Mark Haddon, 2012-06-12. From Mark Haddon, the bestselling author of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, comes a dazzlingly inventive novel about modern family life. Richard, a wealthy doctor, invites his estranged sister and her family to join his family for a week at a vacation home in the English countryside. Against the backdrop of a strange family gathering, Haddon skillfully weaves together the stories of eight very different people forced into close quarters. The Red House is a symphony of long-held grudges, fading dreams, and rising hopes, tightly guarded secrets, and illicit desires, painting a portrait of contemporary family life that is at once bittersweet, comic, and deeply felt. SR-312 Extension, SR-207 to US-1 North \(SR-5\), St. Johns County, 1996. Red House Kenneth Wishnia, 2014-03-01. First she was a beat cop, then she was unemployed. Now Kenneth Wishnia's dynamic Filomena Buscarsela has apprenticed herself to a New York City PI firm to put in the three years necessary to get her own PI license, which she needs to earn enough money to support herself and her daughter. Trouble is, she often agrees to take on sticky neighborhood cases pro bono, like the group of squatters restoring an abandoned building in the neighborhood rather than handle the big bucks clients her bosses would prefer. While helping out her more senior colleagues with her own superior investigative techniques bred from years on the beat, Filomena agrees to look into the disappearance of a young immigrant. Then, witnessing the arrest of a neighbor on marijuana possession charges that nearly turns into a shoot-out with the police, Filomena is roped into finding out what went wrong. Trying to balance charity cases like these with bread-and-butter cases, not to mention single motherhood, Filomena is quickly in over her head, dodging bullish cops, aggressive businessmen, and corrupt landlords in their working-class Queens neighborhood. After years of policing and backstreet bloodhounding Filomena Buscarsela is apprenticing to earn her own private investigator's license She pours on her Spanish her clever tricks and her battle tested charms to uncover a labyrinth of deceit racial prejudice and impenetrable bureaucracy that not only rocks her neighborhood but also threatens the foundation of the big red house that is this PI's America The Red House on Rowan Street Lily Augusta Long,1910 The Red House Edith Nesbit,1902
