Postmodernitys Transcending Devaluing God:

Postmodernitys Transcending Laurence Paul Hemming, 2005 Postmodernitys Transcending Devaluing God in one way undertakes a history of the concept of the aesthetic sublime in another it is an exploration of the limits of theological thinking where theology is understood either as a practice arising from faith or from thinking By examining concepts like soul experience analogy and truth the author issues a provocative challenge to much contemporary Christian theology to return to a more serious engagement with philosophy Hemming explores the confrontation with God and the gods to be found in Protagoras Plato Aristotle Aquinas Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida often offering innovative readings of these thinkers sharply at odds with accounts to be found elsewhere Rendez-vous onder de Mangga-boom Catharina Louisa de Jong-Coumou, Elisabeth Maria Hekkenberg, 2004 Postmodernitys Transcending Laurence Paul Hemming, 2005 This book in one way undertakes a history of the concept of the aesthetic sublime in another it is an exploration of the limits of theological thinking where theology is understood either as a practice arising from faith or from thinking By examining concepts like soul experience analogy and truth the author issues a provocative challenge to much contemporary Christian theology to return to a more serious engagement with philosophy Hemming explores the confrontation with God and the gods to be found in Protagoras Plato Aristotle Aquinas Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida often offering innovative readings of these thinkers sharply at odds with accounts to be found elsewhere BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Ecclesiology and Postmodernity Gerard Mannion, 2017-01-13 What in the world is postmodernity Is it the dominant reality today If it is what does it mean to be a church in a postmodern world It seems that the church had a difficult time coming to terms with a modern world an era ruled by the claims of scientific certainty Having done so more or less it is now confronted by the claims of postmodernity which seem to reverse the whole equation to say that certainty and objectivity are chimeras What is truth Pilate asked and postmodernity at least as caricatured by its opponents responds There s no such thing Gerard Mannion in Ecclesiology and Postmodernity addresses the situation of the church in a postmodern world The fundamental changes in human society and culture wrought by the twentieth century require the church to consider its response in the twenty first century What is the church s moral Vision how does its practice look what is the nature of its aspiration toward holiness in our times Mannion believes that since Vatican II the Catholic Church has been in a kind of limbo awaiting a Vision of its own life for the future Rather than focusing on specific controversies Mannion offers concrete suggestions about how the church can create a better harmony between its own self understanding its ecclesiological Vision and its day to day life its ecclesial practice Gerard Mannion PhD educated at King s College Cambridge University and New College Oxford University is Associate Professor of Ecclesiology and Ethics in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at Liverpool Hope University UK He is also the director of Church In Our Times Centre for the Study of Contemporary Ecclesiology co director of the Applied Ethics Initiative at Liverpool Hope co chair of the AAR American Academy of Religion Ecclesiological Investigations Program Unit and co ordinator of the Ecclesiological Investigations International Research Network Mannion is the author of Schopenhauer Religion and Morality and co editor of Readings in Church Authority Gifts and Challenges for Contemporary Catholicism both published by Ashgate in 2003 and co editor of the forthcoming volumes The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church and Catholic Social Justice Theological and Practical Explorations Theological Poverty in Continental Philosophy Colby Dickinson, 2021-03-25 Colby Dickinson proposes a new political theology rooted in the intersections between continental philosophy heterodox theology and orthodox theology Moving beyond the idea that there is an irresolvable tension at the heart of theological discourse the conflict between the two poles of theology is made intelligible Dickinson discusses the opposing poles simply as manifestations of reform and revolution characteristics intrinsic to the nature of theological discourse itself Outlining the illuminating space of theology Theological Poverty in Continental Philosophy breaks new ground for critical theology and continental philosophy Within the theology of poverty the believer renounces the worldly for the divine Through this focus on the poverty intrinsic to religious calling the potential for cross pollination between the theological and the secular is highlighted Ultimately situating the virtue of theological poverty within a poststructuralist postmodern world Dickinson is not content to position Christian philosophy as the superior theological position moving away from the absolute values of one tradition over another This universalising of theological poverty through core and uniting concepts like grace negation violence and paradox reveal the theory s transmutable strength By joining up critical theology and the philosophy of religion in this way the book broadens the possibility of a critical dialogue both between and within disciplines The Experience of God Robyn Horner, 2022-10-20 Belief and credal commitment sometimes seem to make less and less sense in the West A kind of cultural amnesia has taken hold where formal religious adherence begins to seem almost unthinkable This is especially so for the idea of divine revelation Robyn Horner argues this means we need to re evaluate how theology proceeds focusing not so much on beliefs but on experience Exploring ways in which the experiential might open human beings up to divine possibility the author turns to phenomenology especially in the French philosophical tradition because it seeks to examine unrestrictedly what is given through involved encounter Bringing phenomenology and poststructuralism together Horner develops the idea of revelation as an event wherein God interrupts and exceeds human experience affecting and transforming it This striking concept named but largely unexplored by theology articulates a notion of supernatural revelation which now starts to appear both coherent and plausible Transcendence in Heidegger's Early Thought Erik Kuravsky, 2023-11-27 This book demonstrates how Heidegger s departure from ontotheology occurs initially as a preparation for the concept of Dasein s transcendence and subsequently as its explicit development and overcoming Dasein s transcendence is revealed as the foundation for the subsequent concept of Beyng as an Event which stands in contrast to all ontotheological perspectives that assert a singular a priori foundation of the universe attributed to beings God consciousness or even an independent process of Being that doesn't rely on Dasein. The book illustrates that transcendence is not an attribute of human consciousness or a connection to something external to it. Instead, as a primal act, transcendence paves the way for a non-representational dwelling in the essence of a historically unfolding Being, a contemplative recollection of the truth of Being. Throughout the book, there is a gradual progression towards an understanding of transcendence as an active engagement wherein we do transcendence. This process involves a reconstruction of the ontological significance of action, emphasizing its performative embeddedness in existence and its inseparability from Being.

Through a Glass Darkly Holly Faith Nelson, Lynn R. Szabo, Jens Zimmermann, 2011-01-19
Suffering the sacred and the sublime are concepts that often surface in humanities research in an attempt to come to terms with what is challenging, troubling, or impossible to represent. These intersecting concepts are used to mediate the gap between the spoken and the unspeakable, between experience and language, between body and spirit, between the immanent and the transcendent, and between the human and the divine. The twenty-five essays in Through a Glass Darkly: Suffering the Sacred and the Sublime in Literature and Theory, written by international scholars working in the fields of literary criticism, philosophy, and history, address the ways in which literature and theory have engaged with these three concepts and related concerns. The contributors analyze literary and theoretical texts from the medieval period to the postmodern age, from the works of Chaucer, Shakespeare, Donne, and Herbert to those of Endo Shōmei, Alice Munro, Annie Dillard, Emmanuel Levinas, and Slavoj Žižek. This book will be of particular interest to scholars of religion and literature, philosophy, and literature, aesthetic theory, and trauma studies.

Orthodoxy, Process and Product Mathijs Lamberigts, Lieven Boeve, Terrence Merrigan, 2009
From 2002-2008, three research groups from the departments of systematic theology and church history at the Faculty of Theology, KU Leuven, joined forces in an interdisciplinary project entitled Orthodoxy, Process and Product. The aim of the project was a church-historical and systematic theological study of the determination of truth in church and theology. The present volume contains contributions from all senior members of the project research group. The contributions are the result of a research conference in 2006 in which both the question of the nature of truth as such and the process of determination of theological truth was approached from many different angles. Thus, questions from philosophy, systematic theology, and history of church and theology are discussed, including such themes as the implications of various philosophical theories of truth for theology, the question of religious pluralism and its ramifications for theological truth claims, theological truth claims in the thought of Gregory of Nyssa, Augustine, John Driedo, and at the Second Vatican Council. In addition, the meta-question of the relationship between the historical and the systematic aspects of theological truth and the way in which the historical and systematic theological disciplines interact, play an important role in this volume.

The Liturgical Subject James G. Leachman, 2009
This book brings together a wide range of understandings of the liturgy grounded in doctrinal and spiritual theology, history, philosophy, and liturgical studies.

Corpus Mysticum Henri de Lubac, 2007
A great figure of 20th-century

Catholic theology Henri Cardinal de Lubac SJ is renowned for his attention to the doctrine of the Church and its life within the contemporary world In this book de Lubac opens an initial exploration of the ways in which the Church has been understood Eucharistically and gives new expression to that mystery in which the Church is believed to consist As one whose generous and fervent spirit contributed significantly to the thinking of the Second Vatican Council de Lubac s influence has been widespread making a substantial impact on the work of not only Catholic but also Protestant and Orthodox theologians With the publication of this English translation of Corpus Mysticum this important text of contemporary Catholic ecclesiology and sacramental theology is made available to the English speaking world and takes its place among the growing number of de Lubac s works now accessible to Anglophone scholars Book jacket Counter-experiences Kevin Hart,2007 Jean Luc Marion is a leading figure in French phenomenology as well as one of the proponents of the so called theological turn in European philosophy In this text a stellar group of philosophers and theologians examine Marion s work especially his later work from a variety of perspectives Social Theory and Practice ,2006 Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith ,2006 The Writers Directory ,2013 International Medieval Bibliography ,2009 Lists articles notes and similar literature on medieval subjects in journals Festschriften conference proceedings and collected essays Covers all aspects of medieval studies within the date range of 450 to 1500 for the entire continent of Europe the Middle East and North Africa for the period before the Muslim conquest and parts of those areas subsequently controlled by Christian powers Feminist Theologies for a Postmodern Church Loraine MacKenzie Shepherd,2002 Liberal modern approaches to theology have tended to silence voices from the margins This book offers an alternative feminist theological approach that more adequately addresses issues of diversity and marginalization It critically examines and combines aspects of four different feminist approaches Elisabeth Sch ssler Fiorenza s critical modern Mary McClintock Fulkerson s poststructural Kwok Pui lan s postcolonial and Kathryn Tanner s postliberal This alternative feminist theological approach is then used to examine how a liberal mainstream Protestant denomination has dealt with issues of sexual orientation and gender Particular attention is given to biblical interpretation as shaped by community the role of traditional doctrine assumptions of authority and revelation and communities of accountability The Philosopher's Index ,2008 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005
