Problems Of Death Opposing Viewpoints:

Problems of Death, 1974 Problems of Death David L. Bender, 1974 Presents opposing viewpoints on euthanasia abortion suicide and funeral homes through essays by a variety of authors Includes discussion activities Problems of Death James D. Torr, 2000 The most divisive and emotionally charged issues of the day abortion the death penalty and euthanasia all have one thing in common They are matters of life and death Authors debate these perpetually contentious issues in the following chapters Is Abortion Moral Is Capital Punishment Just Should Society Condone Physician Assisted Suicide How Should Individuals View Death Opposing Viewpoints Sources Bruno Leone, David L. Bender, 1984

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Abortion-- Murder Or Mercy? François B. Gérard, 2001 This book is meant to provide an overview of and gather the literature on abortion one of the most divisive issues of our times Honest women and men the world over must deal with this issue in their hearts and minds whether or not they ever face the issue personally It is hard to conceive of a single thinking person who doesn't have an opinion on abortion usually strongly held The arguments are cogent on both sides of the issue We hope that this collection will bring to the attention of readers the publications which shed light on the fundamental issues involved Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Death and Dying Paul A. Winters, 1998 Ronald Dworkin Michael Ventura Anne E Fade and Burke Balch examine current and perennial views on issues surrounding death and dying Contemporary Moral Issues Lawrence M. Hinman, 2016-07-01 Contemporary Moral Issues is an anthology that provides a selection of readings on contemporary social issues revolving around three general themes Matters of Life and Death Matters of Equality and Diversity and Expanding the

Circle which includes duties beyond borders living together with animals and environmental ethics The text contains a number of distinctive high profile readings and powerful narratives including Jonathan Foer s Eating Animals Eva Feder Kittay s On the Ethics of Selective Abortion for Disability and Susan M Wolf s Confronting Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia My Father s Death Each set of readings is accompanied by an extensive introduction a bibliographical essay pre reading questions and discussion questions

Ethical Issues in Neurology James L. Bernat,2008 Written by an eminent authority from the American Academy of Neurology s Committee on Ethics Law and Humanities this book is an excellent text for all clinicians interested in ethical decision making The book features outstanding presentations on dying and palliative care physician assisted suicide and voluntary active euthanasia medical futility and the relationship between ethics and the law New chapters in this edition discuss how clinicians resolve ethical dilemmas in practice and explore ethical issues in neuroscience research Other highlights include updated material on palliative sedation advance directives ICU withdrawal of life sustaining therapy gene therapy the very low birth weight premature infant the developmentally disabled patient informed consent organizational ethics brain death controversies and fMRI and PET studies relating to persistent vegetative state

Essays Upon Heredity and Kindred Biological Problems August Weismann,1891 Junior High School Library Catalog ,1990 Essays upon heredity and kindred biological problems v. 1, 1891 August Weismann,1891

The Definition of Death Stuart J. Youngner,Robert M. Arnold,Renie Schapiro,2002-10-15 In the 1980s following the recommendation of a presidential commission all fifty states replaced previous cardiopulmonary definitions of death with one that also included total and irreversible cessation of brain function The Definition of Death Contemporary Controversies is the first comprehensive review of the clinical philosophical and public policy implications of our effort to redefine the change in status from living person to corpse Edited by Stuart J Youngner Robert M Arnold and Renie Schapiro the book is the result of a collaboration among internationally recognized scholars from the fields of medicine philosophy social science law and religious studies Throughout the contributors struggle to reconcile inconsistencies and gaps in our traditional understanding of death and to respond to the public s concern that in the determination of death under current policies patients interests may be compromised by the demand for organ retrieval Their questions about the philosophical and scientific bases for determining death lead inevitably to more profound questions of social policy Acknowledging that the definition of death is as much a social construct as a scientific one the authors in their analysis of these issues provide a comprehensive and provocative source of information for students and scholars alike

Understanding Dying, Death & Bereavement Michael R. Leming,George E. Dickinson,1998 This work approaches the subject of death and dying from a social psychological perspective while examining the social meanings of dying and death It addresses such issues as religion and death attitudes the dying process euthanasia bereavement burial practices and death perceptions from childhood through older adulthood This edition has been updated to include information and statistics on death etiology and life expectancy Ethical Issues in Death and Dying Tom L. Beauchamp, Robert M. Veatch, 1996 This anthology of major classical and contemporary views on key ethical aspects of death and dying is the only philosophically sophisticated interdisciplinary and up to date introduction to the subject available Pairs pro and con arguments to give a balanced perspective Covers a range of topics that reflect the latest developments at the frontier of the field Provides clearly and carefully written section introductions that define the issues to be discussed Introduces each selection with a brief editorial essay Features up to date and solid analyses of all issues Offers an excellent introduction to ethical theory
