SHORT STORIES 120 Discussion Cards

TIPS TO USE THE CARDS:

1. Print, laminate, and cut cards you want to print enough for your class but I even print double or 4-fold give students more than one.
2. Shuffle cards and hand out to students before the discussion. I often randomize more than one if it going to be a longer discussion.
3. Give students time to think about their questions. You may want to have them write down some ideas and thoughts pre-discussion.
4. After the discussion, have students reflect using the post-discussion slips.

TOPICS COVERED BY THE CARDS:

120 Discussion Cards

What role did conflict play in the story? How was it resolved, if at all?

What character would you have the most sympathy for? Why?

What was the most interesting moment in the story? How did it make you feel?

What do you think the author wants readers to understand or learn from the main character's journey?

How do the relationships between the characters evolve throughout the story?

How do the challenges the main character will face after the story ends?

Did the author use any literary devices like metaphors, similes, or imagery? How did they enhance the story?

How do the main characters' choices help their journey in the story?

Did the ending give a hint into the future of the story? How?

How do the characters' choices affect the story's outcome?

How do the characters' choices affect the story's outcome?
