Fundamentalism in America Philip Melling, 2013-12-02 This important book challenges the idea that religious fundamentalism can adequately be understood as a paranoid xenophobic faith It demonstrates instead how it draws upon a long tradition of evangelical and millennialist scripture in its engagement with issues at the spiritual and ethical core of postmodernity in the United States The author examines the varieties of fundamentalism as they appear in prophecy sermon film and fiction In its wide ranging consideration of the rhetoric of the New World Order the literature of prophecy Cold War films television evangelism cross border texts and post nationalist writing Fundamentalism in America provides a vital and compelling account of the present state of religious and nationality identity in the United States WLA ,1999

Teaching Peace Denny J. Weaver, Gerald Biesecker-Mast, 2003-09-08 This book opens a new frontier in understanding nonviolence Discussions of peace and nonviolence usually focus on either moral theory or practical dimensions of applying nonviolence in conflict situations Teaching Peace carries the discussion of nonviolence beyond ethics and into the rest of the academic curriculum This book isn't just for religion or philosophy teachers it is for all educators Teaching Peace begins with a discussion rooted in Christian theology where nonviolence is so central and important But it is clear that there are other paths to nonviolence and that one certainly doesn't have to be a Christian to practice nonviolence The pieces that follow therefore show how a nonviolent perspective impacts disciplines across the curriculum from acting to biology to mathematics to psychology

Southeast Asia Collection National Library (Singapore), 1991 Library Journal ,1991 War, Literature, and the Arts ,2008 Behind the Lines Philip Metres, 2001 This dissertation analyzes the ways in which American lyric poetry

has articulated and authorized a new critical discourse about war speaking for and to dissenters against U S involvement in the Second World War the Vietnam War and the Persian Gulf War This study begins with the Second World War when 50 000 American conscientious objectors engaged in nonviolent social action during internment The C O poets Robert Lowell William Stafford and William Everson articulate the dilemmas of direct action in a poetry marked by self accusation and disavowal The Vietnam War provoked a war resistance poetry that explicitly critiqued American nationalism and increasingly addressed the anti war movement visible in the shift in poetic address in Denise Levertov s lyric poetry At the same time Levertov s war poetry renders visible the perils of representing the other John Balaban s poetry and translations from Vietnamese by contrast offer an alternative war resistance narrative communicating the complexities of witness Finally the debate about the ethics of postmodernity between Jean Baudrillard and Christopher Norris in the wake of the Persian Gulf War enables an analysis of the lyric in activist contexts and anthologies June Jordan and Barrett Watten in particular address the new conditions of postmodern warfare bypassing the limits of the lyric through performative and experimental poetics
