Library,Anton H. Anderson,Irene Coons Reese,Irene Mae Coons,James Goodwin Hodgson,John Campbell McKinnon,John VanMale,Milton Estes,Morris E. Paddick,Sarabajita Singha,1915 The Management of Pakistan's Economy, 1947-82 Viqar Ahmed,Rashid Amjad,1984 The first volume in a series on Pakistan s economy this book investigates and analyzes the factors responsible for the economic policies followed in Pakistan from 1947 to 1982 These policies the authors argue are largely responsible for the economic situation of Pakistan today Empire and Islam David Gilmartin,1988 The tensions inherent in the structure and ideology of colonial organization thus provide the backdrop for the study Gilmartin s extensive use of private papers biographies and autobiographies of prominent as well as less prominent political leaders helps give this study a balanced viewpoint He also draws on a range of popular and private Urdu materials that lend the book an authentic voice BOOK JACKET Jinnah, Linlithgow and the Making of Pakistan Tilak Raj Sareen,2010-01-01 During the last sixty years historians have made efforts to explain the circumstances which led to the making of Pakistan There is no dearth of those who have blamed the Indian National Congress and its leaders for its creation The buedon of evidence however suggests that it was Jinnah President of All India Muslim League who got direct and indirect support from the Viceroy when the war began for achieving his aim of making a seperate homeland for the Muslims In this volume the author has shown by documentary evidence as to how this was achieved by Jinnah The documents

collected from archival repositories in India and abroad shed considerable light on what transpired between Jinnah and Lord Linlithgow when the war started and how both conspired to prepare separate scheme to counter the claim of the Congress which became the basis of Pakistan. The documents also reveal how keen was the Viceroy that scheme should be unanimously approved by the Muslim League at its Lahore Session in March 1940. For cooperation with the British during the war Jinnah was given the assurance that in any constitutional change in India during or after the war the Muslims will have the right to decide their own destiny as per the Lahore or also known as the Pakistan Resolution. With an introduction and explanatory notes the author has done a commendable job of placing the documents for the scholars to pursue this subject in proper historical perspective.

Making Sense of Pakistan Farzana Shaikh, 2018-10-15 Argues that the decline of Pakistan is deeply entrenched with roots in its original national foundations

Civil Society and Pakistan's Economy Fayyaz Baqir, 2023-03-17 This book analyses the paradoxes of Pakistan's economy, meritocratic domestic policy and the role of the state and the civil society. It argues that the transition in the country's foreign policy from geo-politics to geo-economic depends on a fundamental domestic policy transition from kleptocracy to meritocracy. Civil Society and Pakistan's Economy discusses how the prevalence of rent-seeking practices has undermined merit-based practices by increasing the cost of doing business and converting public loss into private profit by awarding inappropriate subsidies and imposing regressive taxes. The analyses are supported by describing the instruments and mechanisms used for rent-seeking practices and the creation of public awareness of options available to change these practices through citizen's action and civil society engagement. The book also shows the path of transformation and the role of participation and argues that aspiring for and capturing power is not the only way to transform Pakistan. A novel analysis depicting macro-micro linkages of encroachment of socio-economic space by the power elites and effective strategies used for its reappropriation by the people, the book will be of interest to academics researching South Asian Studies in particular South Asian economics and politics.

The Great Partition Yasmin Khan, 2007-01-01 Examines the context, execution and aftermath of partition, integrating the knowledge of political manoeuvres with an understanding of their fundamental social and cultural consequences. This account draws together a body of research to reappraise independence and division and reinforce its catastrophic human cost.

Postcolonial Geographies Alison Blunt, Cheryl McEwan, 2002-01-01 Postcolonialism and geography are intimately linked through the spatiality of colonial discourse as well as the material effects of colonialism and decolonization. Geographical ideas about space, place, landscape and location have helped to articulate different experiences of colonialism both in the past and present and the here and there. At the same time while spatial images such as mobility, margins and exile abound in postcolonial writings, more material geographies have often been overlooked. Postcolonial Geographies presents the first sustained geographical analysis of postcolonialism. Exploring and developing the connections between postcolonialism and geography, the essays in this book ranging across Europe, Australia, Asia, Africa and North America investigate the geographies of postcolonialism and chart the contours of a postcolonial geography Contributors Morag Bell Claire Dwyer Haydie Gooder Jane M Jacobs M Satish Kumar Alan Lester Mark McGuinness Karen M Morin Richard Phillips Marcus Power Jenny Robinson James D Sidaway John Wylie
