Making Of A:

The Making of a Bestseller Arthur T. Vanderbilt, 1999-01-01 Writer F Scott Fitzgerald's career itself is a metaphor for the vagaries of book publishing. If Fitzgerald would have had his way we would today refer to The Great Gatsby as either Gold Hatted Gatsby or Trimalchio in West Egg or The High Bouncing Lover. A few years before Gatsby Fitzgerald had become a literary sensation at the age of 23. Helen Hooven Santmyer a contemporary of Fitzgerald's would not have a successful novel published until she was 88 and living in a nursing home. In this book the author explores that mysterious place in publishing where art and commerce can either clash mesh or both. Along the way a wide range of authors from the literary greats to today's commercial superstars editors agents and publishers share their thoughts insights and experiences. What inspires writers John Steinbeck for example wrote every novel as if it were his last as if death were imminent. Why are some books successful and appreciated while others fall into oblivion. The answers are often elusive never absolute but the stories and anecdotes are always fascinating.

Champlin situates these readings within a larger theoretical and historical context exploring the mechanics aesthetics and poetics of terror while explicating the emergence of the terrorist personality in modernity. In engaging and accessible prose Champlin explores the ethical dimensions of violence and interrogates an ethics of textual violence.
