Negotiating Rapture Richard Francis, 1996 Negotiating Rapture Richard Francis, Museum of Contemporary Art (Chicago, Ill.), 1996 Bhabha Georges Didi Huberman David Morgan and Lee Siegel as well as a series of focused contributions by Yve Alain Bois Wendy Doniger Kenneth Frampton Martin E Marty John Hallmark Neff Annemarie Schimmel and Helen Tworikov consider how rapture resonates both in a cultural context and within the experience of a single human being

The Physics and Metaphysics of Transubstantiation Mark P. Fusco, 2023-08-18 In this book Mark P Fusco offers a historical philosophical and theological review and appraisal of current research into quantum post modern atheistic mathematical and philosophical theories that engage our interpretation of Hans Urs von Balthasar and Ferdinand Ulrich's accounts of Ur Kenosis This cross disciplinary approach inspires a new speculative metaphysical theory based on the representation of being as a holo somatic ontology Holocryptic metaphysics gives us a novel interpretation of transubstantiation as it is founded on the findings of quantum mechanical theory The quantum object and black hole's properties present a new way to explain physical matter based on its holographic identity This scientific theory for representing physical matter's identity is recognized for example in the symmetry existing between a subatomic particle and its orbital shell a single particle's identity in relationship to its thermodynamic system Hawking radiation and black hole entropy Further the properties of quantum non locality and teleportation signpost a new way to understand the Eternal Logos relationship to Jesus Christ and the Eucharist Homi K. Bhabha , Opening Acts Judith Hamera, 2006 Opening Acts Performance in as Communication and Cultural Criticism offers new rigorous ways to analyze communication and culture through performance Editor Judith Hamera along with a distinguished list of contributors provides students with cutting edge readings of everyday life space history and intersections of all three using a critical performance based approach This text makes three significant contributions to the field it familiarizes readers with the core elements and commitments of performance based analysis links performance based analysis to theoretical and analytical perspectives in communication and cultural studies and provides engaging examples of how to use performance as a critical tool to open up communication and culture offers new rigorous ways to analyze communication and culture through performance Editor Judith Hamera along with a distinguished list of contributors provides students with cutting edge readings of everyday life space history and intersections of all three using a critical performance based approach This text makes three significant contributions to the field it familiarizes readers with the core elements and commitments of performance based analysis links performance based analysis to theoretical and analytical perspectives in communication and cultural studies and provides engaging examples of how to use performance as a critical tool to open up communication and culture Shifting Borders Jean-François Bélisle, Reid Cooper, Luke Nicholson, 2021-02-19 Shifting Borders brings together new research on visual culture by scholars located across North America This compilation of essays explores the notion of borders in a range of domains including art history architecture art theory video games performance art artistic creation and photography The authors seek to address contemporary concerns affecting larger society through the lens of visual culture The world is becoming increasingly globalized as nations and multilateral organizations advocate freer international trade the sharing of technological and political ideas and multiculturalism Yet despite a rhetorical attachment to the message of lower national barriers there has been a concomitant rise in veiled borders These barriers promise to maintain cultural exclusion and economic hegemony The essays in this volume share a desire to re-examine inherited knowledge systems to redefine the terms of debate and create spaces that more accurately reflect a just reality While this is not the unique purview of Postmodern ethics what is novel here is the willingness of the authors of these essays and the artists they investigate to identify with dwell in and expand upon the margins of their particular subject matter The essays presented in Shifting Borders have the force to open up new forms and understandings of cultural difference and initiate new perspectives in and beyond their respective domains

Critical Image Configurations: The Work of Georges Didi-Huberman Stijn De Cauwer, Laura Katherine Smith, 2020-06-09 This book illuminates a variety of the key themes and positions that are developed in the work of art historian and philosopher Georges Didi Huberman one of the most influential image theorists of our time Beginning with a translated exchange on the politics of images between Jacques Rancière and Georges Didi Huberman the volume further contains a translation of Didi Huberman's essay on Georges Bataille's writings on art The articles in this book explore the influence of Theodor Adorno and Aby Warburg on Didi Huberman's work the relationship between image and people his insights on witnessing and memory the theme of phasmids and his reflections on aura pathos and the imagination Taken as a whole the book will give readers an insight into the rich and expansive work of Didi Huberman beyond the books that are currently available in English This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Journal of the Theoretical Humanities
