Network Lawrence Alloway, 1984 Systems of Art Francis Halsall, 2008 Systems theory emerged in the mid 20th century along with related theories such as Cybernetics and Information Theory Recently it has included Complexity Theory Chaos Theory and Social Systems Theory Systems theory understands phenomena in terms of the systems of which they are part This book is about a systems theoretical approach to thinking about art It examines what it means to look to systems theory both for its implications for artistic practice and as a theory of art This publication provides a sustained discussion on the application of systems theory to an account of art Lawrence Alloway Lucy Bradnock, Courtney J. Martin, Rebecca Peabody, 2015-07-01 Lawrence Alloway 1926 1990 was a key figure in the development of modern art in Europe and America from the 1950s to the 1980s He is credited with coining the term pop art and with championing conceptual art and feminist artists in America His interests as a critic and as a curator at the Solomon R Guggenheim Museum in New York were wide ranging however and included architecture design earthworks film neorealism science fiction and public sculpture Early in his career he was associated with the Independent Group in London and although he was largely self taught he was a noted educator and lecturer A prolific writer Alloway sought to escape the conventions of art historical discourse This volume illuminates how he often shaped the field and anticipated approaches such as social art history and visual and cultural studies Lawrence Alloway Critic and Curator provides the first critical analysis of the multiple facets of Alloway s life and career exploring his formative influence on the disciplines of art history art criticism and museum studies The nine essays in this volume depend on primary archival research much of it conducted in the Lawrence Alloway Papers held by the Getty Research Institute Each author addresses a distinct aspect of Alloway s eclectic professional interests and endeavors Art and Pluralism Nigel Whiteley, 2012-08-03 This book examines the writings of Lawrence Alloway 1926 1990 one of the most influential and widely respected art writers of the post War years It provides a close and critical reading of his writings and sets his work in the cultural and political context of the London and New York art worlds of the 1950s to the early 1980s Rethinking Postwar Europe Barbara Lange, Dirk Hildebrandt, Agata Pietrasik, 2019-12-09 The book Rethinking Postwar Europe offers an in depth insight into the largely unexplored topic of artistic practices in the 1940s and 1950s in Europe which until recently had been obscured by ideologies of the Cold War Thanks to the authors diverse methodological backgrounds the volume presents for the first time a comprehensive multilayered narrative focusing on the complexities and entanglements in the artistic field Instead of assessing the postwar period in the traditional way as divided by the Iron Curtain the contributions investigate processes of contact interaction dissemination overlapping and networking Consequently the analysis of a diversified European modernism in both its aesthetic and its socio political dimension resonates with all the different case studies In particular the volume looks at how artists developed designed and re negotiated identities and discourses and sheds new light on the power of art and creative powers in general in a postwar
