lessons I can tell with certainty that quitting my real job was one of the best decisions that I ever made I did exactly what I told my father I was going to do and I got more students I went on to teach up to twenty five students a week right out of my parents basement I was making about five times more per week than all of my friends that were working at minimum wage jobs I was only working twenty five hours per week which is only part time and I was making nearly fifty thousand dollars per year I want to be clear about one thing While I was a good player I was no virtuoso I simply discovered that people were willing to pay me to learn what I knew about my instrument That s the beauty of the music lesson business You don t have to be the best player in your local area to be a very financially successful music instructor You will learn how to Set up your studio in home or in a music store Set your prices to make the most money Use my policy to maximize your profits Market your business for almost free Get more students that you can handle Make a great schedule that you love Keep the best records How to teach a lesson Where to find the best resources and Much More Don t just play your instrument for fun play for profit and have fun too How to Earn $3K+/Month Teaching Music Destiny S Harris,2020-12-16 From the age of 14 I taught music lessons both piano and guitar for ten years despite only being a beginner to intermediate level teacher This source of income helped me not have to work regular full time jobs throughout high school and college Though I was only a beginner to intermediate level teacher I charged a premium price to my students and consistently invested in advertising Not only did teaching and running a music business improve my teaching and people skills but it also developed my communication and business skills This e book course will guide anyone who knows enough to teach music how to monetize the skill and turn it into a money making machine People will always invest in music lessons in person and virtual so if you have the ability and enough knowledge to teach music why not use it to elevate your financial situation You don t need to be an expert to teach music you just need to know enough to help your students learn GET STARTED TODAY Making Money Making Music James W.
