

About the Workbook

This workbook is designed to interactively guide the reader through the whole process of project management.

Project management encompasses various elements, including planning, financing, execution, and follow-up. The person in charge of a project might overlook multiple aspects of the project and, as a result, feel frustrated when faced with problems.

This workbook will help the user systematically identify all the areas that the user should consider for effective execution and completion of the project.

Even though this workbook might prove inadequate for specific projects, the workbook still might be used by anyone for a superficial understanding of project management.
