Answer 4:

- (i) When the parrot which was kept in the cage died, Princess September cried a lot. She was in tears because she had lost her parrot. She kept weeping and nothing calmed her.
- (ii) Her mother did not understand her feelings for the bird and told her to stop that nonsense. She also told her to go to bed without any supper.
- (iii) The Princess' reaction shows that she was a young and sensitive child. She could not bear the loss of her parrot and therefore she cried a lot. The parrot was a very dear to her. And this loss made her sad.

Her mother's reaction shows that she was a little insensitive. She did not sympathise with her daughter and did not understand her feelings. She did not realize that the parrot's death was in any way an important event to shed tears.
