We Fought at Arnhem Mike Rossiter,2011-05-26 Operation Market Garden a plan to capture the bridge over the Rhine at Arnhem and outflank the German front In all twelve thousand airborne troops were to land either by parachute or glider at three drop zones and move towards their objective As the world now knows the mission was to be a bridge too far for the British forces Mike Rossiter has interviewed three of the survivors of those fateful days each involved in a different flank of the British attack and in vivid detail reconstructs the events that lead up to this most famous of glorious defeats It is at once a story of hubris and bad planning but also of valiant sacrifice and inspirational courage

A World without Martha Victoria Freeman,2019-10-01 Victoria Freeman was only four when her parents followed medical advice and sent her sister away to a distant overcrowded institution Martha was not yet two but in 1960s Ontario there was little community acceptance or support for raising children with intellectual disabilities at home In this frank and moving memoir Victoria describes growing up in a world that excluded and dehumanized her sister She writes too of her own journey to understand the policies and assumptions about disability that profoundly affected her entire family Despite society s long insistence that that only a normal life was worth living changing attitudes to both disability and difference would eventually offer both sisters new possibilities for healing and self discovery A World Without Martha documents the collateral damage of institutionalization on families as well as the ties both traumatic and loving that bind family members to one another over the course of a lifetime
