Man Of War:

"Yankton", Yacht and Man-of-war Malcolm Francis Willoughby,1935 Collier's ,1928 Not Just a Man's War Yihong Pan,2024-09-01 In 1931 Japan began a brutal occupation of Manchuria and in 1937 China and Japan entered a full scale war that ended with Japan s defeat in 1945 The War of Resistance became the Chinese experience of the Second World War Yet women scarcely get a mention in most accounts of the fourteen year conflict Through interviews published reminiscences and oral histories Not Just a Man s War uncovers the extraordinary stories of ordinary Chinese women during the war Communist women speak of fighting as soldiers for a good war and contributing to the party s rise to power Nationalist women attribute their survival to the strength of the human spirit while acknowledging tremendous suffering Women from the working poor and the middle classes describe the hardships of Japanese aggression and in their narratives refuse to be ignored as passive beings In speaking up the victims of sexual violence become survivor activists demanding justice These women demonstrate a striking autonomy regardless of political association socioeconomic status or education By attending to their insights Not Just a Man s War produces a multi faceted inclusive narrative of China s War of Resistance

The Anglo-Boer War (1899-1902): White man's war, black man's war, traumatic war André Wessels,2010-09-01 Based on many years of research with regard to the Anglo Boer War this book is essential reading for anyone who would like to know more about the most devastating conflict that has thus far been waged between white people in Southern Africa However with due course this war also involved more and more black brown and to some extent Asian people

Soumalais-englantilainen sanakirja Karl Vilhelm Arminen,1916 Letters From a Living Dead Man, War Letters From the Living Dead Man, Last Letters From the Living Dead Man David Patterson Hatch (Elsa Barker), One night last year in Paris I was strongly impelled to take up a pencil and write though what I was to write about I had no idea Yielding to the impulse my hand was seized as if from the outside and a remarkable message of a personal nature came followed by the signature X The purport of the message was clear but the signature puzzled me The following day I showed this writing to a friend asking her if she had any idea who X was Why she replied don t you know that that is what we always call Mr I did not know Now Mr was six thousand miles from Paris and as we supposed in the land of the living But a day or two later a letter came to me from America stating that Mr had died in the western part of the United States a few days before I received in Paris the automatic message signed X So far as I know I was the first person in Europe to be informed of his death and I immediately called on my friend to tell her that X had passed out She did not seem surprised and told me that she had felt certain of it some days before when I had shown her the X letter though she had not said so at the time Naturally I was impressed by this extraordinary incident X was not a spiritualist I am not myself and never have been a spiritualist and so far as I can remember only two other supposedly disembodied entities had ever before written automatically through my hand This had happened when I was in the presence of a mediumistic person but the messages were brief and I had not attached any great importance to the phenomena In childhood I had several times put my hand upon a planchette with the hand of another person and the planchette had written the usual trivialities On one occasion some months before the first X letter I had put my hand upon a planchette with the hand of a non professional medium and the prophecy of a fire in my house during a certain month in the following year was written supposedly by a dead friend which prophecy was literally verified though the fire was not caused by my hand nor was it in my own apartment A few times years before I had been persuaded by friends to go with them to professional s ances and had seen so called materialisations I had also seen independently a few appearances which I could not account for on any other hypothesis than that of apparitions of the dead But to the whole subject of communication between the two worlds I felt an unusual degree of indifference Spiritualism had always left me quite cold and I had not even read the ordinary standard works on the subject Nevertheless I had for a number of years almost daily seen hypnagogic visions often of a startlingly prophetic character and the explanation of them later given by X may be the true explanation Soon after my receipt of the letter from America stating that Mr was dead I was sitting in the evening with the friend who had told me who X was and she asked me if I would not let him write again if he could I consented more to please my friend than from any personal interest and the message beginning I am here make no mistake came through my hand It came with breaks and pauses between the sentences with large and badly formed letters but quite automatically as in the first instance The force used on this occasion was such that my right hand and arm were lame the following day Several letters signed X were automatically written during the next few weeks but instead of becoming enthusiastic I developed a strong disinclination for this manner of writing and was only persuaded to continue it through the arguments of my friend that if X really wished to communicate with the world I was highly privileged in being able to help him X was not an ordinary person He was a well known lawyer nearly seventy years of age a profound student of philosophy a writer of books a man whose pure ideals and enthusiasms were an inspiration to everyone who knew him His home was far from mine and I had seen him only at long intervals So far as I remember we had never discussed the question of postmortem consciousness Gradually as I conquered my strong prejudice against automatic writing I became interested in the things which X told me about the life beyond the grave I had read practically nothing on the subject not even the popular Letters from Julia so I had no preconceived ideas The messages continued to come After a while there was no more lameness of the hand and arm and the form of the writing became less irregular though it was never very legible For a time the letters were written in the presence of my friend then X began to come always when I was alone He wrote either in Paris or in London as I went back and forth between those two cities Sometimes he would come several times a week again nearly a month would elapse without my feeling his presence I never called him nor did I think much about him between his visits During most of the time my pen and my thoughts were occupied with other matters Only in one instance before the writing began had I any idea as to what the letter would contain One night as I took up the pencil I knew what X was going to write about but though I remember the incident I have forgotten to which message it referred While writing these letters I was generally in a state of semi consciousness so that until I read the message over afterwards I had only a vague idea of what it contained In a few instances I was so near unconsciousness that as I laid down the pencil I had not the remotest idea of what I had written but this did not often happen When it was first suggested that these letters should be published with an introduction by me I did not take very enthusiastically to the idea Being the author of several books more or less well known I had my little vanity as to the stability of my literary reputation I did not wish to be known as an eccentric a freak But I consented to write an introduction stating that the letters were automatically written in my presence which would have been the truth though not all the truth This satisfied my friend but as time went on it did not satisfy me It seemed not quite sincere I argued the matter out with myself If I said I publish these letters without a personal introduction they will be taken for a work of fiction of imagination and the remarkable statements they contain will thus lose all their force as convincing arguments for the truth of a hereafter If I write an introduction stating that they came by supposedly automatic writing in my presence the question will naturally arise as to whose hand they came through and I shall be forced to evasion But if I frankly acknowledge that they came through my own hand and state the facts exactly as they are only two hypotheses will be open first that they are genuine communications from the disembodied entity second that they are lucubrations of my own subconscious mind But this latter hypothesis does not explain the first letter signed X which came before I knew that my friend was dead does not explain it unless it be assumed that the subconscious mind of each person knows everything In which case why should my subconscious mind set out upon a long and laborious deception of me on a premise which hadnot been suggested to it by my own objective mind or that of any other person That anyone would accuse me of deliberate deceit and romancing in so serious a matter did not then and does not now seem likely my fancy having other and legitimate outlets in poetry and fiction The letters were probably two thirds written before this question was finally settled and I decided that if I published the letters at all I should publish them with a frank introduction stating the exact circumstances of their reception by me The actual writing covered a period of more than eleven months Then came the question of editing What should I leave out What should I include I determined to leave out nothing except personal references to X s private affairs to mine and to those of his friends I have not added anything Occasionally when X s literary style was clumsy I have reconstructed a sentence or cut out a repetition but I have taken far less liberty than I used as an editor to take with ordinary manuscripts submitted to me for correction Sometimes X is very colloquial sometimes he uses legal phraseology or American slang Often he jumps from one subject to another as one does in friendly correspondence going back to his original subject without a connecting phrase He has made a few statements relative to the future life which are directly contrary to the opinions which I have always held These statements remain as they were written Many of his philosophical propositions were quite new to me Sometimes I did not see their profundity until months afterwards

Keith,2004 During World War I thousands of rural southern men black and white refused to serve in the military Some failed to register with the draft while others deserted after being inducted Jeanette Keith traces southern draft resistance to several sources The War in Cartoons ,1914 The circulation in plants, in the lower animals, and in man James Bell Pettigrew,1908 Frenzied Liberty, the Myth of "A Rich Man's War" Otto H. Kahn,2020-07-27 Reproduction of the original Frenzied Liberty the Myth of A Rich Man s War by Otto H Kahn Rich Man's War David Williams,2011-03-15 In Rich Man s War historian David Williams focuses on the Civil War experience of people in the Chattahoochee River Valley of Georgia and Alabama to illustrate how the exploitation of enslaved blacks and poor whites by a planter oligarchy generated overwhelming class conflict across the South eventually leading to Confederate defeat This conflict was so clearly highlighted by the perception that the Civil War was a rich man s war and a poor man s fight that growing numbers of oppressed whites and blacks openly rebelled against Confederate authority undermining the fight for independence After the war however the upper classes encouraged enmity between freedpeople and poor whites to prevent a class revolution Trapped by racism and poverty the poor remained in virtual economic slavery still dominated by an almost unchanged planter elite The publication of this book was supported by the Historic Chattahoochee Commission The People's Bible Joseph Parker,1888 Old Man's War John Scalzi,2007-04-01 Perfect for an entry level sci fi reader and the ideal addition to a veteran fan s collection John Scalzi s Old Man s War will take audiences on a heart stopping adventure into the far corners of the universe John Perry did two things on his 75th birthday First he visited his wife s grave Then he joined the army The good news is that humanity finally made it into interstellar space The bad news is that planets fit to live on are scarce and aliens willing to fight for them are common The universe it turns out is a hostile place So we fight To defend Earth a target for our new enemies should we let them get close enough and to stake our own claim to planetary real estate Far from Earth the war has gone on for decades brutal bloody unyielding Earth itself is a backwater The bulk of humanity s resources are in the hands of the Colonial Defense Force which shields the home planet from too much knowledge of the situation What s known to everybody is that when you reach retirement age you can join the CDF They don t want young people they want people who carry the knowledge and skills of decades of living You ll be taken off Earth and never allowed to return You ll serve your time at the front And if you survive you ll be given a generous homestead stake of your own on one of our hard won colony planets John Perry is taking that deal He has only the vaguest idea what to expect Because the actual fight light years from home is far far harder than he can imagine and what he will become is far stranger Old Man s War Series 1 Old Man s War 2 The Ghost Brigades 3 The Last Colony 4 Zoe s Tale 5 The Human Division 6 The End of All Things Short fiction After the Coup Other Tor Books The Android s Dream Agent to the Stars Your Hate Mail Will Be Graded Fuzzy Nation Redshirts Lock In The Collapsing Empire At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied
