Man Ray Neil Baldwin,1991 Man Ray is the quintessential modernist figure painter sculptor objectmaker and collagist photographer printmaker and filmmaker poet essayist and philosopher One of the most important and enigmatic of the Surrealists who transformed the Paris art world during the ferment of the 1920s and beyond Man Ray was a bundle of contradictions a Dadaist who revered the Old Masters an anarchist coddled by wealthy patrons an obsessive documenter of his own works who was relentlessly determined to erase his personal history Born Emmanuel Radnitsky son of a Philadelphia garment worker and his strict sharp tongued wife he grew up in Brooklyn fled to Paris and eluded ties with his family Under the influence of his close friend Marcel Duchamp Man Ray began creating works such as The Gift a flatiron adorned with carpet tacks and his mysterious rayographs of common and uncommon objects His stormy love affairs were with some of the most fascinating women of his day the poet Adon Lacroix his first wife the exotic chanteuse Kiki of Montparnasse the photographer and actress Lee Miller In the meantime Man Ray came to know and photograph virtually every important figure in the arts on both sides of the Atlantic personalities such as James Joyce Coco Chanel Gertrude Stein Jean Cocteau and Max Ernst Driven to make his mark in as many art forms as possible Man Ray bitterly struggled to win acceptance as a painter even as his skill as a photographer brought him worldwide acclaim Man Ray American Artist enriched by previously unpublished material and the close cooperation of Juliet Man Ray the artist s widow should stand for years to come as the definitive story of the life and times of one of the greatest of modern artists Man Ray Neil Baldwin,2001-01-12 This story enriched by previously unpublished material and the close cooperation of Juliet Man Ray the artist s widow should stand for years to come as the definitive story of the life and times of one of the greatest of modern artists Man Ray in America Curtis L. Man Ray 1890-1976 has long been considered one of the most versatile and innovative artists of the twentieth century. As a painter, writer, sculptor, photographer, and filmmaker, he is best known for his intimate association with the French Surrealist group in Paris during the 1920s and 1930s, particularly for his highly inventive and unconventional photographic images. These remarkable accomplishments, however, have tended to overshadow the importance of his earlier work, significant not only for comprehending Man Ray's future artistic development but also for fleshing out our understanding of the visual arts in America during one of the most important and crucial phases of the evolution of modernism. The book and the exhibition for which this work will serve as the catalog concentrate on Man Ray's production from 1907 to 1917. Conversion to Modernism will be the first comprehensive, fully illustrated work to examine this artist's seminal years. The show and the catalog begin with Man Ray's high school years in Brooklyn, his studies at the Art Students League and the American Academy in New York, and the time he spent in life drawing classes at the more progressive Ferrer Center. From 1913 to 1915, Man Ray lived in a small artists' colony in Grantwood, New Jersey. It was here, studying with Samuel Halpert, a former student of Matisse, that Man Ray began to become the artist we know today. The last section of the show and of the book includes recently discovered photographs and other works that are influenced by a knowledge of the emergent Dada movement. Here is Man Ray in recognizable form just before he leaves the country for France in 1921. This exhibit will first be on display at the Montclair Art Museum from January 26 through March 2003. It will then travel to museums in Athens, Georgia, Philadelphia, and Chicago.

Man Ray Arthur Lubow, 2021-09-14

A biography of the elusive but celebrated Dada and Surrealist artist and photographer, connecting his Jewish background to his life and art. Man Ray 1890-1976, a founding father of Dada and a key player in French Surrealism, is one of the central artists of the twentieth century. He is also one of the most elusive. In this new biography, journalist and critic Arthur Lubow uses Man Ray's Jewish background as one filter to understand his life and art. Man Ray began life as Emmanuel Radnitsky, the eldest of four children born in Philadelphia to a mother from Minsk and a father from Kiev. When he was seven, the family moved to the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn, where both parents worked as tailors. Defying his parents' expectations that he earn a university degree, Man Ray instead pursued his vocation as an artist, embracing the modernist creed of photographer and avant-garde gallery owner Alfred Stieglitz. When, at the age of thirty, Man Ray relocated to Paris, he, unlike Stieglitz, made a clean break with his past. Alias
