Management Practices And Business Development In Pakistan 1947 1988:

Management Practices and Business Development in Pakistan, 1947-1988 Naveed Hasan, 1997 This book encompasses many diverse topics such as the decision making style of Pakistan's early entrepreneurs since 1947 state incentives to business groups the evolution of management practices and the universal applicability of the Systems Approach as having explanatory power for long term growth of business groups The relationship between these issues poses new challenges for the scholar The role of the owner manager as decision maker or forward looking entrepreneur and businessman offers insight into the politico business culture in early industrialization In the long term it was the internal organizational factors drawing from the Systems Approach methodology that prevailed over the external environment of the Groups examined Hence long term growth was dependent on consistent adoption of systems not connections The work of this author provides a bridge between the past and current debate on which business strategy is the most effective or sustainable given that businesses operate in different environments culture ownership structures and political regimes New Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney, S. Akbar Zaidi, 2019-09-19 This volume makes a major intervention in the debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics This is the first comprehensive academic analysis of Pakistan's political economy after thirty five years and addresses issues of state class and society examining gender the middle classes the media the bazaar economy urban spaces and the new elite The book goes beyond the contemporary obsession with terrorism and extremism political Islam and simple civilian military relations and looks at modern day Pakistan through the lens of varied academic disciplines It not only brings together new work by some emerging scholars but also formulates a new political economy for the country reflecting the contemporary reality and diversification in the social sciences in Pakistan The chapters dynamically and dialectically capture emergent processes and trends in framing Pakistan's political economy and invite scholars to engage with and move beyond these concerns and issues Gunpoint Capitalism Laurent Gayer, 2025-03-01 Globalized manufacturing multinational hegemony street violence and urban securitization come together in this eye opening study of Karachi's economic order

Research Libraries,1990 Privatisation in Developing Countries V. V. Ramanadham,2019-02-11 It is widely felt that the public sector in many developing countries is too large and that privatisation would benefit both the users of individual services and the economy in general However enthusiasm for private enterprise solutions is not always matched by the requisite financial and economic technology The sort of schemes appropriate for a country like China with its highly planned public sector economy and Jordan with its dominant private sector are unlikely to be the same Privatisation without reference to these differences will be an economic administrative and organisational chaos rather than a panacea Originally published in 1989 this book starts with an analysis on the concept rationale and fundamental issues of privatisation with reference to both developed and developing countries There follows a critical scrutiny of the privatisation programmes of countries in Asia Africa and Latin America written by contributors actively concerned with public enterprise and privatisation at the time It examines the role of international aid agencies including the World Bank in promoting the schemes and it details the positive impact of them as well as their pitfalls These country accounts are complemented by a concluding chapter giving an overview of the substantial issues raised Historical Abstracts ,1999 International Books in Print ,1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1989 Productivity ,1989
