The Worlds of André Maurois Jack Kolbert, 1985 The centennial of Andre Maurois's birth in 1885 has made this a most appropriate moment to produce a comprehensive work assessing his role as one of the leading literary figures in the Western world Jack Kolbert's The Worlds of Andre Maurois draws heavily from his close personal association with Maurois as well as from painstaking analyses of each of Maurois's published works and of many of his unpublished and private papers Maurois had the virtue of serving as a supreme communicator a writer who could transform the most complex subject matter into readable tidily organized and above all lucid works of prose narrative Unchallenged as the foremost biographer of 20th century literary figures he also produced well written and accurate histories of the three nations he knew best France England and the United States For decades his novels and short stories enjoyed worldwide popularity Climats may well be regarded as a novelistic classic and his science fiction continues to attract many readers With a warm spirit of appreciation Jack Kolbert's monograph covers all of the major aspects of this fascinating literary figure his human characteristics his presence in French and international society the persons who peopled his private and public worlds his great biographies novels short stories histories essays and articles of criticism Kolbert's study on Maurois is probably the most comprehensive work on this subject to date Maurois; the Writer and His Work Georges Édouard Lemaître, 1968

Gabriel Fauré: The Songs and their Poets Graham Johnson, 2017-07-05 The career of Gabriel Fauré's a composer of songs for voice and piano traverses six decades 1862-1921 almost the whole history of French music is contained within these parameters In the 1860s Fauré the lifelong protégé of Camille Saint-Saëns was a suavely precocious student he was part of Pauline Viardot's circle in the 1870s and he nearly married her daughter Pointed in the direction of symbolist poetry by Robert de Montesquiou in 1886 Fauré as the favoured composer from the early 1890s of Winnaretta Singer later Princesse de Polignac and his songs were revered by Marcel Proust In 1905 he became director of the Paris Conservatoire and he composed his most profound music in old age His existence steadily productive and outwardly imperturbable was undermined by self-doubt an unhappy marriage and a tragic loss of hearing In this detailed study Graham Johnson places the vocal music within twin contexts Fauré's own life story and the parallel lives of his many poets We encounter such giants as Charles Baudelaire and Paul Verlaine the patrician Leconte de Lisle the forgotten Armand Silvestre and the Belgian symbolist Charles Van Lerberghe The chronological range of the narrative encompasses Fauré's first poet Victor Hugo who railed against Napoleon III in the 1850s and the last Jean de La Ville de Mirmont killed in action in the First World War In this comprehensive and richly illustrated study each of Fauré's 109 songs receives a separate commentary Additional chapters for the student singer and serious music lover discuss interpretation and performance in both aesthetic and practical terms Richard Stokes provides parallel English translations of the original French texts In the twenty-first century musical modernity is evaluated differently from the way it was assessed thirty years ago Fauré's no longer merely a Master of Charms circumscribed by the belle époque His status as a great composer of timeless

Biography and the Question of Literature in France

Ann Jefferson, 2007-01-04 This book takes a fresh look at the relations between literature and biography by tracing the history of their connections through three hundred years of French literature The starting point for this history is the eighteenth century when the term biography first entered the French language and when the word literature began to acquire its modern sense of writing marked by an aesthetic character Arguing that the idea of literature is inherently open to revision and contestation Ann Jefferson examines the way in which biographically orientated texts have been engaged in questioning and revising definitions of literature At the same time she tracks the evolving forms of biographical writing in French culture and proposes a reappraisal of biography in terms not only of its forms but also of its functions Although Ann Jefferson's book has powerful theoretical implications for both biography and the literary it is first and foremost a history offering a comprehensive new account of the development of French literature through this dual focus on the question of literature and on the relations between literature and biography It offers original readings of major authors and texts in the light of these concerns beginning with Rousseau and ending with life writing contemporary authors such as Pierre Michon and Jacques Roubaud Other authors discussed include Mme de St el Victor Hugo Sainte Beuve Barbey d Aurevilly Baudelaire Nerval Mallarm Schwob Proust Gide Leiris Sartre Genet Barthes and Roger Laporte The Encyclopedia Americana ,1980 Les Misérables [Everyman's Library] Victor Hugo,1909 Research Guide to Biography and Criticism Walton Beacham,1986 Description and evaluation of the most important biographical autobiographical and critical sources for 146 dramatics worldwide *European Writers: The Romantic century: Goethe to Pushkin.
