Grau, Marvin Harry Ferguson, 1950 Making Art and Making a Living Mason Currey, 2026-03-31 Mason Currey is the undisputed master of finding in the messy lives of great artists and thinkers throughout time deeply human lessons about cultivating meaning in our current age Cal Newport New York Times bestselling author of Slow Productivity and Deep Work

Daily Rituals author Mason Currey weaves together delightful illuminating stories and reflections about how famous artists writers musicians and filmmakers throughout history have managed to successfully or not support a creative life Many of us are drawn to a life in the arts but daunted by how to balance that ambition with the very real need to pay rent and put food on the table It is impossible to become an accomplished painter composer or novelist without spending time experimenting making false starts absorbing criticism reading talking and moping about the house All this time must be purchased one way or another Is the history of art and ideas just a history of rich kids The answer of course is no William Carlos Williams was a family doctor Franz Kafka was an insurance man as were Charles Ives and Wallace Stevens Grace Hartigan temped James Joyce mooched off his brother Christopher Isherwood ingratiated himself with a wealthy uncle Virginia Woolf and Louisa May Alcott were determined to make their writing pay no matter what And their material circumstances had an impact on all of their creative outputs From family money to jobs to colorful schemes Mason Currey author of the acclaimed Daily Rituals explores both the well worn and unlikely paths forward for the up and coming artist Making Art and Making a Living is an entertaining and thought provoking examination of the collision of creative ambitions with real world necessities and of the messy glorious torturous compromises that gifted individuals have patched together when facing the eternal dilemma of an artistic life
