Literary Art Harriet Noble, 1897      Essays on Literary Art Hiram Miner Stanley, 1897      The Literary Work of Art Roman Ingarden, 1979      Literary Art John Albee, 1881      Literary Art. A Conversation Between a Painter, a Poet and a Philosopher John Albee, 2025-07-08 Reprint of the original first published in 1881 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage      The Art of Literature, Art in Literature Magdalena Bleinert-Coyle, Izabela Curyłło-Klag, Bożena Kucala, 2014 These twelve essays examine the exchange between literature and the visual arts mainly painting which since the turn of the nineteenth century has gained prominence in literary criticism Reading modern and postmodern texts the authors consider literary works next to the artworks the poets and writers invoke Such instances of artistic synthesis highlight evolving perspectives on art and literature and the expressive possibilities offered by the simultaneity of words and images      Fools and Jesters in Literature, Art, and History Vicki K. Janik, 1998-05-21 Jesters and fools have existed as important and consistent figures in nearly all cultures Sometimes referred to as clowns they are typological characters who have conventional roles in the arts often using nonsense to subvert existing order But fools are also a part of social and religious history and they frequently play key roles in the rituals that support and shape a society's system of beliefs This reference book includes alphabetically arranged entries for approximately 60 fools and jesters from a wide range of cultures Included are entries for performers from American popular culture such as Woody Allen Mae West Charlie Chaplin and the Marx Brothers literary characters such as Shakespeare's Falstaff Rabelais Gargantua and Pantagruel and Singer's Gimpel and cultural and mythological figures such as India's Birbal the American circus clown the Native American Coyote Taishu Engeki of Japan Hephaestus Loki the Norse fool schlimiels and schlimazels and the drag queen The entries written by expert contributors are critical as well as informative Each begins with a biographical artistic religious or historical background section which places the subject within a larger cultural and historical context A description and analysis follow This section may include a discussion of the fool's appearance gender role ethical and moral roles social function and relationship to such themes as nature time and mortality The entry then discusses the critical reception of the subject and concludes with an extensive bibliography of general works      Literature and Art Sarah Margaret Fuller, 2009-03 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world's literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work      From Chaucer to Arnold Andrew Jackson George, 1925      Art in Literature, Literature in Art in 19th Century France Emilie Sitzia, 2011-12-08 The traditional relationship between painting and literature underwent a profound change in nineteenth century France Painting

progressively asserted its independence from literature as it liberated itself from narrative obligations whilst interrogating the concept of subject matter itself. Simultaneously the influence of art on the writing styles of authors increased and the character of the artist established itself as a recurring motif in French literature. This book offers a panoramic review of the relationship between art and literature in nineteenth century France. By means of a series of case studies chosen from key moments throughout the nineteenth century the aim of this study is to provide a focused analysis of specific examples of this relationship revealing both its multifaceted nature as well as offering a panorama of the development of this on going and increasingly complex cultural relationship. From Jacques Louis David's irreverence for classical texts to Victor Hugo's graphic works from Edouard Manet's illustrations to Vincent Van Gogh's paintings of books from Honor de Balzac's Unknown Masterpiece to Joris Karl Huysmans's A Rebours this interdisciplinary investigation of the links between literature and art in France throws new light on both fields of creative endeavour during a critical phase of France's cultural history.

Essays on Literary Art Hiram Miner Stanley, 2019-10-18 Artistic Relations Peter Collier, Robert Lethbridge, Professor of French Language and Literature Robert Lethbridge, 1994-01-01 In this innovative volume literary critics and art historians explore the relationship between literature and the visual arts in 19th century France. Eighteen leading scholars including Pierre Bourdieu Germaine Greer Segolene Le Men Roger Cardinal and Mary Ann Caws analyse contemporary forms of representation to reveal the rich variety of factors that link image and text.
