Revaluation Tradition Development:

Re-Reading Leavis G. Day, 1996-10-11 This book offers a much needed reassessment of F R Leavis Gary Day argues that post structuralist theory has defined itself in opposition to Leavis when in fact there are certain parallels between the two types of criticism Day also draws attention to the connections between Leavis s early work and the emergent discourses of consumerism and scientific management In particular he notes how at the centre of each is an image of the body and he analyses what this means for Leavis s conception of reading By situating Leavis in relation to the concerns of post structuralism and by locating him firmly in his historical context Day is able to chart how far criticism can justly claim to be oppositional At the same time Day is able to recuperate from Leavis s work a notion of value a topic which is becoming increasingly important in literary and cultural studies today Edinburgh History of Scottish Literature: Modern Transformations: New Identities (from 1918) Ian Brown, 2006-11-13 In almost a century since the First World War ended Scotland has been transformed in many rich ways Its literature has been an essential part of that transformation The third volume of the History explores the vibrancy of modern Scottish literature in all its forms and languages Giving full credit to writing in Gaelic and by the Scottish diaspora it brings together the best contemporary critical insights from three continents It provides an accessible and refreshing picture of both the varieties of Scottish literatures and the kaleidoscopic versions of Scotland that mark literary developments since 1918 Communicational Criticism Roger D. Sell, 2011 Further developing the line of argument put forward in his Literature as Communication 2000 and Mediating Criticism 2001 Roger D Sell now suggests that when so called literary texts stand the test of time and appeal to a large and heterogeneous circle of admirers this is because they are genuinely dialogical in spirit Their writers rather than telling other people what to do or think or feel invite them to compare notes and about topics which take on different nuances as seen from different points of view So while such texts obviously reflect the taste and values of their widely various provenances they also channel a certain respect for the human other to whom they are addressed So much so that they win a reciprocal respect from members of their audience In Sell s new book this ethical interplay becomes the focus of a post postmodern critique which sees literary dialogicality as a possible catalyst to new non hegemonic kinds of globalization The argument is illustrated with major reassessments of Shakespeare Pope Wordsworth Dickens Churchill Orwell and Pinter and there are also studies of trauma literature for children and of ethically oriented criticism itself Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker, Andrew Thacker, 2009-03-26 The first of three volumes charting the history of the Modernist Magazine in Britain North America and

Europe this collection offers the first comprehensive study of the wide and varied range of little magazines which were so instrumental in introducing the new writing and ideas that came to constitute literary and artistic modernism in the UK and Ireland In thirty seven chapters covering over eighty magazines expert contributors investigate the inner dynamics and economic and intellectual conditions that governed the life of these fugitive but vibrant publications We learn of the role of editors and sponsors the relation of the arts to contemporary philosophy and politics the effects of war and economic depression and of the survival in hard times of radical ideas and a belief in innovation The chapters are arranged according to historical themes with accompanying contextual introductions and include studies of the New Age Blast the Egoist and the Criterion New Writing New Verse and Scrutiny as well as of lesser known magazines such as the Evergreen Coterie the Bermondsey Book the Mask Welsh Review the Modern Scot and the Bell To return to the pages of these magazines returns us a world where the material constraints of costs and anxieties over censorship and declining readerships ran alongside the excitement of a new poem or manifesto This collection therefore confirms the value of magazine culture to the field of modernist studies it provides a rich and hitherto under examined resource which both brings to light the debate and dialogue out of which modernism evolved and helps us recover the vitality and potential of that earlier discussion
