Revi Lona:

Revi-Lona Frank Cowan,1889 Lost race adventure novel set in the Antarctic about a matriarchy amidst super scientific technology and prehistoric monsters Locke A spectrum of fantasy page 59 Revi Lona Frank Cowan,2014-03-30 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1879 Edition Science-fiction, the Early Years Everett Franklin Bleiler,1990 In this volume the author describes more than 3000 short stories novels and plays with science fiction elements from earliest times to 1930 He includes imaginary voyages utopias Victorian boys books dime novels pulp magazine stories British scientific romances and mainstream work with science fiction elements Many of these publications are extremely rare surviving in only a handful of copies and most of them have never been described before South Pole Elizabeth Leane,2016-04-15 As one of two points where the Earth s axis meets its surface the South Pole should be a precisely defined place But as Elizabeth Leane shows in this book conceptually it is a place of paradoxes An invisible spot on a high featureless ice plateau the Pole has no obvious material value yet it is a highly sought after location and reaching it on foot is one of the most extreme adventures an explorer can undertake The Pole is as Leane shows a deeply imagined place and a place of politics where a series of national claims converge Leane details the important challenges that the South Pole poses to humanity asking what it can teach us about ourselves and our relationship with our planet She examines its allure for explorers such as Robert F Scott and Roald Amundsen not to mention the myriad writers and artists who have attempted to capture its strange inhospitable blankness She considers the Pole s advantages for climatologists and other scientists as well as the absurdities and banalities of human interaction with this place Ranging from the present all the way back to the ancient Greeks she offers a fascinating and lavishly illustrated story about one of the strangest and most important places on Earth Antarctica in Fiction Elizabeth Leane,2012-06-29 This comprehensive analysis of literary responses to Antarctica examines the rich body of literature that the continent has provoked over the last three centuries focussing particularly on narrative fiction Novelists as diverse as Edgar Allan Poe James Fenimore Cooper Jules Verne H P Lovecraft Ursula Le Guin Beryl Bainbridge and Kim Stanley Robinson have all been drawn artistically to the far south The continent has also inspired genre fiction including a Mills and Boon novel a Phantom comic and a Biggles book as well as countless lost race romances espionage thrillers and horror fantasies Antarctica in Fiction draws on these sources as well as film travel narratives and explorers own creative writing It maps the far south as a space of the imagination and argues that only by engaging with this space in addition to the physical continent can we understand current attitudes towards Antarctica Mothers and Masters in Contemporary Utopian and Dystopian Literature Mary Elizabeth Theis,2009 Because advances made by science and technology far outstripped improvements in human nature utopian dreams of perfect societies in the twentieth century quickly metamorphosed into dystopian nightmares which undermined individual identity and threatened the integrity of the family Armed with technological and scientific tools totalizing social systems found in literature abolish the distinction between public and private life and thus penetrate and corrupt the very core of all utopian blueprints and visions the education of future generations At the heart of the family mothers as parents transmit their diverse cultural traditions while socializing their children and thus compete with ideologically driven systems that usurp their role as educators Mothers and Masters in Contemporary Utopian and Dystopian Literature focuses therefore on the thematic importance of this and other maternal roles for generic metamorphosis the shift to dystopia invariably is signaled by the inversion of traditional maternal roles The longevity of the utopian dystopian literary tradition and persistence of the maternal model of human relationships serve as points of reference in this post modern age of relative cultural values Meta utopian exploration of this thematic tension between utopia and dystopia reminds us that no place may not be home but we need to keep going there Egypt Land Scott Trafton,2004-11-19 Explores the relation between nineteenth century American interest in ancient Egypt in architecture literature and science and the ways Egypt was deployed by advocates for slavery and by African American writers Classics of Fantastic Literature Robert Reginald,Robert Menville,2005-01-01 Includes plot summaries and detailed descriptions of 194 works of science fiction from the 19th and 20th centuries The Shop Review ,1913 The Adriatic Review Fan Stylian Noli,Constantin Anastasi Chekrezi,1918 The Review ,1913 Utopian Studies ,1995 Pottery Gazette and Glass Trade Review ,1920 The Publishers Weekly ,1930 Monthly Review of Business and Trade Conditions in South America and Portugal Bank of London & South America, ltd., London,1921 The Economic Review ,1925 The Literary Digest International Book Review ,1926 The Calcutta review ,1921 Pacific Marine Review ,1922 Some Kind of Paradise Thomas D. Clareson,1985-12-11 Clareson reveals the interplay between literary expressionism and intellectual history and shows how science fiction was a popular response to world events during the period 1870 1930 He emphasizes that at least before World War II the predominant tone of American science fiction was optimistic and that one way or another through advanced technology or a return to primitiveness the writers were going to produce Some Kind of Paradise
