of Brooklyn where both parents worked as tailors Defying his parents expectations that he earn a university degree Man Ray instead pursued his vocation as an artist embracing the modernist creed of photographer and avant garde gallery owner Alfred Stieglitz When at the age of thirty Man Ray relocated to Paris he unlike Stieglitz made a clean break with his past

Naumann, Man Ray, 2003 Man Ray 1890 1976 has long been considered one of the most versatile and innovative artists of the twentieth century As a painter writer sculptor photographer and filmmaker he is best known for his intimate association with the French Surrealist group in Paris during the 1920s and 1930s particularly for his highly inventive and unconventional photographic images These remarkable accomplishments however have tended to overshadow the importance of his earlier work significant not only for comprehending Man Ray s future artistic development but also for fleshing out our understanding of the visual arts in America during one of the most important and crucial phases of the evolution of modernism The book and the exhibition for which this work will serve as the catalog concentrate on Man Ray s production from 1907 to 1917 Conversion to Modernism will be the first comprehensive fully illustrated work to examine this artist s seminal years The show and the catalog begin with Man Ray s high school years in Brooklyn his studies at the Art Students League and the American Academy in New York and the time he spent in life drawing classes at the more progressive Ferrer Center From 1913 to 1915 Man Ray lived in a small artists colony in Grantwood New Jersey It was here studying with Samuel Halpert a former student of Matisse that Man Ray began to become the artist we know today The last section of the show and of the book include recently discovered photographs and other works that are influenced by a knowledge of the emergent Dada movement Here is Man Ray in recognizable form just before he leaves the country for France in 1921 This exhibit will first be on display at the Montclair Art Museum from January 26 through March 2003 It will then travel to museums in Athens Georgia Philadelphia and Chicago
