

The Major Types of Financial Institutions

The diagram features a dark blue background with a dark grey ground line at the bottom. Several stylized buildings are depicted: a tall, thin black skyscraper on the left with a white chimney emitting a wavy white line; a large, light blue building with vertical lines in the center; a dark blue building with a white chimney on the right; and a white building with horizontal lines on the far right. A blue rectangular block with diagonal lines is positioned between the dark blue and white buildings. Six callout boxes, each with a thin orange line pointing to a specific building, contain text. The boxes are arranged as follows: 'Savings and loan (S&L) associations' points to the top of the light blue building; 'Insurance companies' points to the top of the dark blue building; 'Mortgage companies' points to the top of the white building; 'Investment banks' points to the side of the black skyscraper; 'Brokerage firms' points to the base of the black skyscraper; and 'Savings and loan (S&L) associations' points to the top of the black skyscraper.
