The Management of Child Protection Services Robert Sanders,2019-05-23 First published in 1999 The Management of Child Protection Services is not about child abuse but about child protection It is about the arrangements that professionals from different disciplines make to ensure they operate together effectively to protect the most vulnerable children in society The book examines five different contexts of child protection historical cross cultural structural managerial and professional and consideration of the operation of Area Child Protection Committees In exploring these contexts the book seeks to address such questions as how can universal standards be applied to protect vulnerable children whilst avoiding ethnocentrism and from where are derived historically and cross culturally the models of child protection adopted in the UK today It also seeks to identify the different professional contexts roles and contributions of agencies involved in child protection with a view to promoting interdisciplinary understanding These questions and understandings are necessary if changes currently being contemplated are to enhance the effectiveness of child protection Contextual Safeguarding and Child Protection Carlene Firmin,2020-05-20 This book offers a complete account of Contextual Safeguarding theory policy and practice frameworks for the first time It highlights the particular challenge of extra familial routes through which young people experience significant harm such as child sexual exploitation criminal exploitation serious youth violence domestic abuse in teenage relationships bullying gang association and radicalisation Through analysing case reviews observing professionals and co creating practices with them Firmin provides a personal philosophical strategic and practical account of the design implementation and future of Contextual Safeguarding Drawing together a wealth of practice examples case studies policy references and practitioner insights for the first time this book articulates a new safeguarding framework and provides a detailed account of its translation across an entire child protection system and its relevant component parts It will be of interest to all scholars students and professionals working within social work youth justice and youth work policing and law enforcement community safety council services forensic and clinical psychology counselling health and education Trust and Confidence in Government and Public Services Sue Llewellyn,Stephen Brookes,Ann Mahon,2013-10-28 Trust and confidence are topical issues Pundits claim that citizens trust governments and public services increasingly less identifying a powerful new erosion of confidence that in the US goes back at least to Watergate in the 1970s Recently media exposure in the UK about MP expenses has been extensive and a court case ruled in favor of publishing expense claims and against exempting MPs from the scrutiny which all citizens are subject to under freedom of information As a result revelations about everything from property speculation to bespoke duck pond houses have fueled public outcry and survey evidence shows that citizens increasingly distrust the government with public resources This book gathers together arguments and evidence to answers questions such as What is trust Can trust be boosted through regulation What role does leadership play in rebuilding trust How does trust and confidence affect public services The chapters in this collection explore these questions across several countries and different sectors of public service provision health education social services the police and the third sector The contributions offer empirical evidence about how the issues of trust and confidence differ across countries and sectors and develop ideas about how trust and confidence in government and public services may adjust in the information age Federal Register ,1997-02-11 Working Ethically in Child Protection Bob Lonne,Maria Harries,Brid Featherstone,Mel Gray,2015-08-20 In their day to day practice social work and human services practitioners frequently find themselves in confusing ethical quandaries trying to balance the numerous competing interests of protecting children from harm and promoting family and community capacity This book explores the ethical issues surrounding child protection interventions and offers a process oriented approach to ethical practice and decision making in child protection and family welfare practice Its aim is to prepare students and early career professionals for roles in the complex and challenging work of child protection and family support Beginning with a critical analysis and appreciation of the diverse organisational and cultural contexts of contemporary child protection and ethical decision making frameworks the authors outline a practical real world model for reshaping frontline ethical practice Moving away from a focus on the child apart from the family the authors recognise that child safeguarding affects the lives not just of children but also of parents grandparents and communities Working Ethically in Child Protection eschews dominant rational technical models for relational ones that are value centred and focus on family well being as a whole Rather than a single focus on assessing risk and diagnosing deficit this book recognises that our child protection systems bear down disproportionately on those from disadvantaged and marginalised communities and argues that what is needed is real support and practical assistance for poor and vulnerable parents and children It uses real world case examples to illustrate the relevant ethical and practice principles and ways in which students and practitioners can practise ethically when dealing with complex multi faceted issues Perspectives on place-shaping and service delivery Tom Entwistle,Cardiff University: Centre for Local and Regional Government Research,Lyons Inquiry into Local Government,2007-03-21 Dated March 2007 The Lyons Inquiry final report ISBN 9780119898545 an executive summary ISBN 9780119898552 and annexes ISBN 9780119898583 are available separately as is a quantitative survey commissioned to explore public attitudes towards local government funding and responsibilities ISBN 9780119898569 Bibliographic Index ,2001 Child Welfare in the Context of Welfare "reform" ,1997 In the Firing Line Janet Stanley,Chris Goddard,2002-02-15 Serious child protection failures haunt health and welfare agencies around the world Based on interviews with protective workers and rigorous examination of their cases this book draws links between the traumatised and isolated child protection worker and the child in the same situation Authors from Monash University Proceedings ... at the Annual Session National Conference of Jewish Social Service (U.S.),1929 Proceedings of the Child Conference for Research and Welfare Child Conference for Research and Welfare,1910 *New York Court of Appeals.
