

The Second Letter

Evening, Monday, July 6

You are suffering, my dearest creature - only now have I learned that letters must be posted very early in the morning on Mondays to Thursdays - the only days on which the mail-coach goes from here to K. - You are suffering - Ah, wherever I am, there you are also - I will arrange it with you and me that I can live with you. What a life!!! thus!!! without you - pursued by the goodness of mankind hither and thither - which I as little want to deserve as I deserve it - Humility of man towards man - it pains me - and when I consider myself in relation to the universe, what am I and what is He - whom we call the greatest - and yet - herein lies the divine in man - I weep when I reflect that you will probably not receive the first report from me until Saturday - Much as you love me - I love you more - But do not ever conceal yourself from me - good night - As I am taking the baths I must go to bed - Oh God - so near! so far! Is not our love truly a heavenly structure, and also as firm as the vault of heaven?

The Third Letter

Good morning, on July 7

Though still in bed, my thoughts go out to you, my Immortal Beloved, now and then joyfully, then sadly, waiting to learn whether or not fate will hear us - I can live only wholly with you or not at all - Yes, I am resolved to wander so long away from you until I can fly to your arms and say that I am really at home with you, and can send my soul enwrapped in you into the land of spirits - Yes, unhappily it must be so - You will be the more contained since you know my fidelity to you. No one else can ever possess my heart - never - never - Oh God, why must one be parted from one whom one so loves. And yet my life in V is now a wretched life - Your love makes me at once the happiest and the unhappiest of men - At my age I need a steady, quiet life - can that be so in our connection? My angel, I have just been told that the mailcoach goes every day - therefore I must close at once so that you may receive the letter at once - Be calm, only by a calm consideration of our existence can we achieve our purpose to live together - Be calm - love me - today - yesterday - what tearful longings for you - you - you - my life - my all - farewell. Oh continue to love me - never misjudge the most faithful heart of your beloved.

My Letters From Ludwig:

My Letters from Ludwig C. Robert Holloway, 2004-09-27 While apprenticing backstage at Richard Wagners legendary Festival Theatre in Bayreuth Germany C R Holloway happens onto a handwritten note purporting to be from King Ludwig II If real its allegations are so slanderous they would further stain Wagners and Ludwigs already sullied reputations and outrage their descendents and admirers Reluctant to inform anyone of his discovery Holloway hides the note inside the lining of his luggage and on returning home to Honolulu stows it in a safety deposit box hoping eventually to find time to verify its genesis and authenticity Shortly his Waikiki postman delivers a letter in which its writer demands the found note be destroyed immediately Written in a hand identical to the original it is signed by someone claiming to be Ludwig himself Soon a series of revealing letters arrive from Ludwig in which he becomes increasingly more hostile toward Holloway and proportionately less self recriminatory Concurrent with the arrival of these letters Holloways life takes a bizarre and disquieting turn that includes his phone being tapped frequent nightmares and surprise visitors from Germany All of which energizes his determination to return to Bavaria surreptitiously investigate Ludwigs world and prowl his castles in search of the truth about the tortured life and mysterious death of The Mad King While a paying guest of the Hohenlohes a wealthy family of nobility in Munich Holloway becomes involved with their nineteen year old son Reiger a strikingly handsome moody first year medical student Their edgy relationship nearly gets the two of them killed In the end Holloways findings are sure to anger Wagnerian purists infuriate Bavarian bureaucrats startle keepers of Ludwigs flame and give tourists a new perspective while tramping through the Mad Kings Dream Castles Wittgenstein's Family Letters Brian McGuinness, 2020-07-09 Translated into English for the first time the letters collected here bring to life one of the greatest thinkers of the twentieth century Ludwig Wittgenstein In letters written over forty years we see how his ideas and relationships developed during his time as a prisoner of war a school teacher an architect and throughout his years at Cambridge Always frank and often brutally honest these letters between Wittgenstein his brother Paul and his three sisters Hermine Margaret and Helene are filled with a familiarity and an intimacy They allow us to enter the bygone world of an extraordinary family revealing a side of Wittgenstein we have never seen before Letters from the Lost Helen Waldstein Wilkes, 2010 On March 15 1939 Helen Waldstein s father snatched his stamped exit visa from a distracted clerk to escape from Prague with his wife and child As the Nazis closed in on a war torn Czechoslovakia only letters from their extended family could reach Canada through the barriers of conflict The Waldstein family received these letters as they made their lives on a southern Ontario farm where they learned to be Canadian and forget their Jewish roots Helen Waldstein read these letters as an adult this changed everything As her past refused to keep silent Helen followed the trail of the letters back to Europe where she discovered living witnesses who could attest to the letters contents She has here interwoven their stories and her own into a compelling narrative of suffering survivor guilt and overcoming intergenerational obstacles when exploring a traumatic past

Beethoven's Letters Beethoven, Lady Wallace, 2014-03 Beethoven's Letters From the Collection of Dr Ludwig Nohl Translated By Lady Wallace COMPLETE TWO VOLUMES In accompanying the present edition of the Letters of Ludwig van Beethoven with a few introductory remarks I at once acknowledge that the compilation of these letters has cost me no slight sacrifices I must also however mention that an unexpected Christmas donation generously bestowed on me with a view to further my efforts to promote the science of music enabled me to undertake one of the journeys necessary for my purpose and also to complete the revision of the Letters and of the press in the milder air and repose of a country residence long since recommended to me for the restoration of my health undermined by overwork That in spite of every effort I have not succeeded in seeing the original of each letter or even discovering the place where it exists may well be excused taking into consideration the slender capabilities of an individual and the astonishing manner in which Beethoven's Letters are dispersed all over the world At the same time I must state that not only have the hitherto inaccessible treasures of Anton Schindler's Beethoven's Nachlass been placed at my disposal but also other letters from private sources owing to various happy chances and the kindness and complaisance of collectors of autographs I know better however than most people being in a position to do so that in the present work there can be no pretension to any thing approaching to a complete collection of Beethoven's Letters The master so fond of writing though he often rather amusingly accuses himself of being a lazy correspondent may very probably have sent forth at least double the amount of the letters here given and there is no doubt whatever that a much larger number are still extant in the originals The only thing that can be done at this moment however is to make the attempt to bring to light at all events the letters that could be discovered in Germany The mass of those which I gradually accumulated and now offer to the public with the exception of some insignificant notes appeared to me sufficiently numerous and important to interest the world and also to form a substantial nucleus for any letters that may hereafter be discovered On the other hand as many of Beethoven's Letters slumber in foreign lands especially in the unapproachable cabinets of curiosities belonging to various close-fisted English collectors an entire edition of the correspondence could only be effected by a most disproportionate outlay of time and expense The Letters of F. W. Ludwig Leichhardt M.
