Man Who Ordered Perch:

Presumed Lost Stephen Moore,2009-10-01 When submarines failed to return to port from patrol they were officially listed by the Navy as overdue and presumed lost Loved ones were notified by the War Department that their siblings spouses and sons were missing in action and presumed lost While 52 U S submarines were sunk in the Pacific the Japanese took prisoners of war from the survivors of only seven of these lost submarines Presumed Lost is the compelling story of the final patrols of those seven submarines and the long captivity of the survivors Of the 196 sailors taken prisoner 158 would survive the horrors of the POW camps where torture starvation and slave labor were common This is the most complete and accurate record of their captivity experiences ever compiled Author Stephen L Moore draws on personal interviews with the survivors as well as on diaries family archives and POW statements to reveal new details and correct longstanding errors in previously published accounts Moore s research brought to light the following facts Most crewmen from USS Perch endured 1 298 days of captivity without their families ever being told that they were still alive The Perch and USS Grenadier were so badly damaged by enemy depth charge attacks that their crews were forced to scuttle their ships USS Sculpin and USS S 44 went down fighting with only forty two men from the Sculpin being taken prisoner and half of them perishing on the way to Japan USS Tang and USS Tullibee victims of their own faulty circling torpedoes had few survivors five of whom managed to escape from the sunken burning Tang when it was 180 feet below the ocean surface As many as six men survived the loss of USS Robalo after it struck a mine off Palawan but none of those survived the prison camps The book includes dozens of rare photos of the POWs many of which have never before been published Appendices include final muster rolls of the seven submarines and a complete list of the U S submariners who were held as POWs with details of their various camps of internment The Canadian Horticulturist and Beekeeper ,1920 The Fishing Gazette ,1879 Awards, Recommendations, Agreements, Orders, Etc New Zealand. some money catch me some muskrats Don t screw up their hides and you better not loose any of my traps you little punks got that the nasty smelly man said as he glared at us with those beady mean looking eyes Gary and Tommy both had a look on their face that I had not seen before The look wasn t one when we had been behind in a baseball or football game and the other team would taunt us or call us names This look was different This look was one of anger and bitterness I knew one day I may not be able to stop them should we encounter the nasty smelly man and he started messing with Tommy again Excerpt from The Best Boat Ever We are now going faster and backwards down the rapids In unison Tommy and Jerald who had not said a word since we launched began screaming at the tops of their lungs They knew the end was near They wouldn t even get to see what large tree or rock that we would crash in to would send them flying out backwards and then watch as our new death wagon slowly Fall on top them pushing them to their watery graves These thoughts made them scream even louder I still had a death grip on my pole and was keeping it under water as we raced backwards Suddenly it stuck in the mud and sand on the bottom knocking me forward into the backs Of Jerald and Tommy This made them only scream louder as they knew the end was near I never let go of the grip on my pole and as I regained my balance our boat miraculously stopped and very slowly the front began to turn back into the middle of the river The river had now widened and was much deeper and yes calm After our boat spun around straight I pulled my pole out of the hole it was stuck in and gave up a slight push The water had become quiet and was moving slowly We had just survived death Our boat was still floating although it had a couple inches of water in the middle Gary Tommy and Jerald all turned to look at me They gazed at me with a strange look Excerpt from Baseball It didn t matter that blood was coming from our sliding arms and hands We had played on much rougher infields before We executed our much practiced method of pop up sliding when stealing a base We would never turn to look for a ball or in this situation people coming after us It didn t matter we were on our feet racing down the long driveway Our feet were barely touching the ground and when we reached the railroad tracks we only went faster We were racing towards home towards safety We were not going to stop until we were at the Ball Park or home base That was all that mattered now We would be safe there we would be home Architecture ,1918 Engineering and Contracting ,1911

The World and the Word Nongenile M. Zenani,1992-10-01 A master storyteller of the Xhosa people of South Africa Nongenile Masithathu Zenani gives us an unprecedented view of an oral society from within Twenty four of her complex and beautiful tales about birth puberty marriage and work as told to the renowned collector of African oral tradition Harold Scheub are gathered here Accompanying the stories are Zenani s detailed commentaries and analyses and Scheub s striking photographs of her in performance The combination of these historical and cultural observations with a richly symbolic collection of tales from a single traditional storyteller make The World and the Word a remarkable document The storyteller s materials are simple Zenani told Scheub the world and the word She presents to us the entire world of the Xhosa people how they first came to be the origins of their customs how they order their world and deal with transgressors how they manage all of life's transitions from birth to death. She depicts both the world as it exists and as it is shaped in the words of the storyteller. Inheriting tales from the Xhosa tradition, Zenani has transformed them into imaginative new stories marked by her own artistry. Scheub's introduction to The World and the Word discusses Xhosa oral tradition and Zenani's particular characteristics as an artist within that tradition, Zenani's personal history and her work as both a storyteller and a healer, and Scheub's friendship with her and his role in recording her legacy.
