Matieres N7:

Le spectre nominal. Des noms de matières aux noms d'abstractions Thomas Römer, 2000 The present debate on the so called Deuteronomistic History has become quite confusing and in recent years more and more scholars are inclined to deny the existence of a Deuteronomistic History as elaborated by Martin Noth or at least to modify this thesis radically The contributions in this volume reflect the present state of discussion about the Deuteronomistic History With one exception they have all been presented and discussed in three special sessions dedicated to Deuteronomism during the SBL International Meeting in Lausanne July 1997 Three topics were treated The Future of the Deuteronomistic History Identity and Literary Strategies of the Deuteronomists Deuteronomism and the Hebrew Bible The contributors are R Albertz A G Auld M Bauks W Dietrich D Edelman F Garcia Lopez E A Knauf G Knoppers S K McKenzie C Nihan T C Romer N H Rosel J Van Seters and J Vermeulen Each contribution offers a valuable entry into one of the most important discussions of Old Testament scholarship at the end of the twentieth century

Aristotelica n. 7 Enrico Pasini, 2025-12-22 Aristotelica is a peer reviewed journal devoted to Aristotle and Aristotelianism through the centuries with a special focus on the texts and textual traditions of Aristotle as a common intellectual background for European and Mediterranean cultures Filling a substantial gap in existing academic journals Aristotelica covers the works of Aristotle with particular attention to his theoretical treatises their textual constitution and the entire exegetical tradition and with an emphasis on philology as an appropriate scholarly approach to philosophical texts The time span is from Aristotle's contemporaries and Greek philosophical literature in Roman times through the medieval period Byzantine Arabic Latin and Renaissance going up to the twentieth century The journal also considers submissions on the relevance of Aristotelianism to theoretical epistemological and ethical debates as well as to fundamental questions about the establishment definition and development of ancient philosophy and science Submissions which can be very short or long there is no word limit and written in any of the main European languages must meet the highest scholarly standards and be based on sound methodology They should contribute significantly to the field by asking innovative questions and reaching well argued and ground breaking conclusions Based on a cooperative agreement between the Universit del Piemonte Orientale and the Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche ILIESICNR Italy Aristotelica will appear through two channels Rosenberg and the ILIESICNR Open Journal System platform
