The Poetry and Poetics of Gerald Vizenor Deborah L. Madsen, 2012-12-31 The Columbia Guide to American Indian Literatures of the United States Since 1945 Eric Cheyfitz, 2006 The Columbia Guide to American Indian Literatures of the United States Since 1945 is the first major volume of its kind to focus on Native literatures in a postcolonial context. Written by a team of noted Native and non Native scholars these essays consider the complex social and political influences that have shaped American Indian literatures in the second half of the twentieth century with particular emphasis on core themes of identity sovereignty and land. In his essay comprising part I of the volume Eric Cheyfitz argues persuasively for the necessary conjunction of Indian literatures and federal Indian law from Apses to Alexie. Part II is a comprehensive survey of five genres of literature: fiction, Arnold Krupat and Michael Elliott poetry, Kimberly Blaeser drama, Shari Huhndorf nonfiction, David Murray and autobiography, Kendall Johnson and discusses the work of Vine Deloria Jr, N Scott Momaday, Joy Harjo, Simon Ortiz, Louise Erdrich, Leslie Marmon Silko, Gerald Vizenor, Jimmy Santiago Baca and Sherman Alexie among many others. Drawing on historical and theoretical frameworks the contributors examine how American Indian writers and critics have responded to major developments in American Indian life and how recent trends in Native writing build upon and integrate traditional modes of storytelling. Sure to be considered a groundbreaking contribution to the field, The Columbia Guide to American Indian Literatures of the United States Since 1945 offers both a rich critique of history and a wealth of new information and insight.

Tracing Ted Tetsuo Aoki's Intellectual Formation Patricia Baergen, 2020-07-08 Through careful examination of Ted Aoki's life and work within its historical, societal and intellectual context, this text advances a new appreciation of the national distinctiveness of Canadian curriculum studies. The book draws unique comparison between Aoki's writings and Heidegger's concept of being in the world. In exploring Aoki's narratives on momentous life events, the author attends to the interwoven dynamic and poetic essence of the scholar's intellectual formation and identifies a critically reflective style of theorizing. By contextualizing Aoki's narrations on his momentous life events, the text engages with Aoki's critical, reflective and unique style of theorizing and foregrounds the prominent influence of Heidegger's phenomenology and writings on Aoki's thinking. A major contribution to understanding Aoki's curriculum scholarship, this book is an important resource for researchers and post graduate students working across curriculum studies discourse.

Essays One Lydia Davis, 2019-11-12 This selection of essays on writing and reading showcases the acclaimed author's wise and brilliant, precise and playful command of language. The New York Times Lydia Davis is a writer whose originality, influence and wit are beyond compare. Jonathan Franzen has called her a magician of self-consciousness while Rick Moody hails her as the best prose stylist in America. And for Claire Messud, Davis's signal gift is to make us feel alive. Best known for her masterful short stories and translations, Davis's gifts extend equally to her nonfiction as she amply demonstrates in this selection of essays, commentaries and lectures. In this first of two volumes, her subjects range from her earliest influences to her favorite short stories from John Ashbery's translation of Rimbaud to Alan Cote's painting and from the Shepherd's Psalm to early tourist photographs. On display is the development and range of one of the sharpest most capacious minds writing today. Gerald Vizenor Kimberly M. Blaeser, 1996 Kimberly M. Blaeser begins with an examination of Vizenor's concept of Native American oral culture and his unique incorporation of oral tradition in the written word. She details Vizenor's efforts to produce a form of writing that resists static meaning, involves the writer in the creation of the literary moment, and invites political action, and explores the place of Vizenor's work within the larger context of contemporary tribal literature.
