Clinical Practice with Families Michael Rothery, George Enns, 2014-01-21 Encourage creative change in troubled families Clinical Practice with Families Supporting Creativity and Competence presents the most important and useful contemporary ideas in family therapy from many diverse traditions By organizing eclectic concepts within one basic powerful framework it makes these ideas more accessible and effective in practice Instead of exploring these ideas in the abstract Clinical Practice with Families illustrates them with in depth case examples that include detailed studies of the client family s history and traditions extensive analyses of the family system and actual dialogue from sessions along with the therapist s comments on shifting alliances and other unspoken occurrences No other technique could better demonstrate the practical integration of therapeutic skills and concepts to meet the clients needs Clinical Practice with Families offers insight and ideas for practicing family therapists in such essential areas as negotiating flexible appropriate boundaries between family members and between yourself and your clients constructing ecomaps of a client s support systems and stressors identifying four kinds of supports helping the client reinterpret family traditions enabling clients to break the pattern of old narratives encouraging clients to set realistic achievable goals Clinical Practice with Families offers a powerful set of techniques and ideas in a clear understandable framework Illustrated with helpful charts and figures it offers senior students and practicing family therapists an opportunity to take a structured approach to contemporary theory and understand its implications for practice

Far from the War Jeffrey Payne, 2011-09-17 Consequences to Sin Robert Lehr, 2007 Matt wakes up in the Chihuahaun Desert beaten and apparently left to die Although he has a bad knock on his head and a broken rib he survives the night in the desert but only just An old prospector finds Matt and calls for help A helicopter responds to the call It lands places Matt on a gurney and flies him to Las Cruces Medical Center The police question him but Matt is too addled to identify suspects at that time Matt recalls nothing except his name and has no idea who might want him dead Matt proposes to produce a narrative of his life in the present and past hoping to scour out suspects The police always consider the spouse as a suspect first But Matt and his wife are so madly in love that Matt does not accuse her in his narrative A poignant memory is the vehicular accident in which Matt and several of his teammates are involved in front of a womens dormitory Matt worries that his brain has been injured when he hears God advise him that his lifetime partner is in the crowd of spectators and to go find her Kathy in her third floor dorm room receives the same message She puts on her robe and hurries downstairs Matt and Kathy quickly find one another They stare at each other for a few moments and then they rush to hold one another
