Matters Of Fact:

Matters of Fact (RLE Social Theory) Stanley Raffel, 2014-08-21 Facts may seem to be independent but in this study Stanley Raffle looks at them as expressions of commitment Medical records he believes furnish a principal example of the actively oriented character of the factual commitment and he draws on his experience of research among the records of a large modern hospital to demonstrate this He describes how records are produced and reorganized as records and discusses the grounds which provide for all the features of the records He looks at the act of observation in many apparently and concretely different places and analyses the activity of noticing viewing recording a spectacle where what is observed supposedly remains untouched by the observing Dr Raffel goes on to show that observation events records and criteria of assessment such as reliability and completeness lose their status as unexplicated verities and become instead decisive and consequential courses of action He points out too that the Socratic dialogues exemplify an orientation to commitment that even medical records paradoxically require if they are to be the matters of fact that they are A few plain matters of fact, humbly recommended to the Roman-Catholics of Ireland FEW PLAIN MATTERS., 1756 Some particular Matter of fact, 1679 The Law of Torts Sir John William Salmond, 1910 Macmillan's Magazine, 1886 Supreme Court New York County, Transactions Commonwealth Club of California, 1905 Selections from Berkeley George Berkeley, 1891 Department Reports of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Massachusetts, 1917 Lawyers' Reports Annotated, 1902 Publication of the American Sociological Society American Sociological Association, 1913 List of members in v 1 5 25 28 supplemental list in v 26 27 Reports of Cases Determined in the Supreme Court of the State of California California.
