Matthew 1-7 MacArthur New Testament Commentary John MacArthur,1985-08-08 The Old Testament looked forward to the final King of kings who would bring everlasting salvation and peace In his gospel Matthew demonstrates that Jesus Christ is that King perfect in His eternal glory and majesty As the King s ambassadors Christians today will find in Matthew great motivation for heartfelt worship and service Join John MacArthur as he explains each verse in a way that is both doctrinally precise and intensely practical The Lord's Prayer and the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel Charles Nathan Ridlehoover,2019-12-26 Charles Nathan Ridlehoover examines the Lord s Prayer in Matthew s Gospel focusing on the prayer s centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the Sermon on the Mount and subsequently the prayer itself Ridlehoover argues that the Lord s Prayer is structurally lexically and thematically central to the Sermon on the Mount and the means through which disciples of Jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines In turn the Sermon on the Mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the Lord s Prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of Jesus Whilst the centrality of the Lord s Prayer has been noted by previous commentators this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father will forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers Ridlehoover s examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality A Harmony of the Gospels Bradley Galambos,2012-04 An Expanded Interpretative Paraphrase of a Chronological Harmony of the Four Gospels with Cross References Supplementary Notes and Indexes They Shall See God H. Allen Hanson,2010-05 Jesus said Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God Matthew 5 8 The Bible progressively reveals a glorious description of God the Father beginning with Moses in the book of Genesis and ending with what John saw in the book of Revelation The author has done massive research showing that the Bible is full of descriptions of the glory of God This is a unique book one of kind about the visual glory of God It is incredible that nothing has been written about this aspect of the glory of God since one of the basic meanings of glory is visual brilliance and splendor It is true that no man has seen God because He has hidden him Himself for several reasons Man would die if he saw Him Man would make an idol of Him God desires that man have faith in an unseen God Many theologians maintain that God cannot be seen that He has no face or form because He is spirit invisible and omnipresent The book addresses these concepts Jesus however said that He has seen God and that angels see His face This book should be in the shelves of every seminary Bible school minister's study and in the hand of every person as a help in Bible study or in seeking to know more about God. May it inspire every Christian to anticipate that day in heaven when they shall see Jesus and God the Father.

Matthew's Christian-Jewish Community Anthony J. Saldarini, 1994-05-16 The most Jewish of gospels in its contents and yet the most anti-Jewish in its polemics, the Gospel of Matthew has been said to mark the emergence of Christianity from Judaism. Anthony J. Saldarini overturns this interpretation by showing us how Matthew, far from proclaiming the replacement of Israel by the Christian church, wrote from within Jewish tradition to a distinctly Jewish audience. Recent research reveals that among both Jews and Christians of the first century, many groups believed in Jesus while remaining close to Judaism. Saldarini argues that the author of the Gospel of Matthew belonged to such a group, supporting his claim with an informed reading of Matthew's text and historical context. Matthew emerges as a Jewish teacher competing for the commitment of his people after the catastrophic loss of the Temple in 70 C.E. His polemics aimed not at all Jews but at those who oppose him. Saldarini shows that Matthew's teaching about Jesus fits into first-century Jewish thought with its tradition of God-sent leaders and heavenly mediators. In Saldarini's account, Matthew's Christian-Jewish community is a Jewish group, albeit one that deviated from the larger Jewish community. Contributing to both New Testament and Judaic studies, this book advances our understanding of how religious groups are formed.

The Restoration of Messianic Hope Brian Main, 2025-06-25 The New Testament portrays the apostles as placing great emphasis on Jesus' resurrection in their preaching and teaching. This emphasis is often lacking, however, in contemporary preaching and teaching. If Jesus' resurrection is to regain the centrality it held in the apostolic age, its significance must be understood. In this study, Brian Main attempts to understand the significance of Jesus' resurrection in the Gospel of Matthew. Since Jesus' resurrection is the proper conclusion of the story in Matthew, it is necessary to understand what the story is that it concludes. By analyzing the characters, settings, plot, and point of view in Matthew 1:1-4:11, as well as those in the resurrection narrative (28:1-20), Main and his readers come to grasp the expectations that Matthew's audience develops as that story unfolds. As readers understand those expectations, they will gain a better appreciation of what was at stake when Jesus experienced opposition and therefore of what was restored and guaranteed by his resurrection.
