

ALEXANDRA TRAINING HOME FOR DOMESTIC SERVANTS.

IN

OUT

It was pointed out at a recent meeting of the Union that there were plenty of girls in Victoria ready to become domestic servants under certain conditions. Of course the aspiring servants will be allowed to choose their own conditions, but their prospective mistresses think one essential condition is their complete conversion. The conversion is to be brought about by passing them through a training institution.

ON WEDNESDAY.

MISTRESS.— Oh, there you are, Mary Ann. I want you particularly. You know it is my day at home?

MAID.— I'm very sorry, but you'll have to change it, ma'am. Wednesday is my day at home.

"I don't think you'll prevent the girls sticking out for suitable conditions." "I don't wash clothes," says Mary Ann. "That's all right; washing is sent out," replies the mistress. "I can't iron." "Ironing is sent out." "I can't scrub." "We have a woman in." "I can't look after children." "Oh— chips in the master." "We have two, but we can kill them."

THE LADY OF THE HOUSE.— Have you seen my husband? Ah, there you are, John. I want you to come with me.

THE SERVANT.— Well, you can't have him, ma'am. It's the servants' picnic to-day, and I want him to carry this basket.

MISTRESS.— Why, Susan, those are my things you have on? "Yes, mum. I engaged to be a servant under suitable conditions, and the privilege of wearing your clothes is one of them conditions."

MISTRESS.— "What, not satisfied, Jane? Why, we do all the work." "MAID.— "Yes, ma'am, but you don't do it well enough for me."

Investigating Family, Food, and Housing Themes in Social Studies Cynthia Williams Resor,2017-10-08 Investigating Family Food and Housing Themes in Social Studies asks students to critically examine their own culture by contrasting it with the daily lives of average people in the past What people ate where people lived and the functions of families are examined and contrasted to subjective cultural ideals prescribing what families food and housing ought to have been The relationship between housing food and family and social class status and gender are emphasized Each chapter includes essential questions to focus student inquiry historical overviews focused on changes in family food and housing from the pre industrial era through its transformation during the Industrial Revolution and into the twentieth century learning activities and primary source documents and images This unique approach to teaching history and social studies supports thematic instruction culturally responsive teaching place based education and literacy in the elementary middle or secondary classrooms

Alcuin's Recreational Mathematics Marcel Danesi,2024-11-01 Propositiones ad acuendos juvenes Problems to Sharpen the Young is a ninth century book written by medieval teacher and scholar Alcuin of York Today it has become one of the foundational texts in what is commonly called recreational mathematics The book has been translated in many languages and analysed from various mathematical angles and perspectives from contemporary arithmetic and geometry to the nature of sequences It is not only a collection of ingenious and challenging puzzles but the core ideas collected in this book have become major themes and branches of mathematics Here Marcel Danesi revisits all fifty three problems in Alcuin s original text providing detailed solutions and analyses Alcuin s Recreational Mathematics examines the problems in the Propositiones in easy to follow language extracting from them the notions and techniques that today constitute basic mathematics Each chapter discusses Alcuin s problems more broadly and ends with ten exploratory puzzles based on Alcuin's original problems and related themes. Answers and detailed solutions are included at the back. Alcuin's Recreational Mathematics demonstrates how Alcuin's Propositiones puts basic mathematical thinking on display via ingenious problems that often require outside-of-the-box thinking, constituting an original and imaginative investigation of mathematics in its essence. Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1905. An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries. School Document District of Columbia. Board of Education, 1929. The structure of government and the challenge of climate change Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee, 2007-10-29. The Committee's report finds that over the past decade the Government has failed to rise fully to the domestic challenge of climate change and its likely failure to reach its domestic target on reducing carbon dioxide emissions will have a damaging impact on the UK's international leadership role in reaching a post-Kyoto agreement. Although the Government has introduced some new arrangements for co-ordinating climate change policy more effectively across Whitehall, the scale of the challenge and the complexity involved in radically restructuring the economy to bring about the needed emission reduction targets requires further changes. There is a need for a strategic review of Government action to ensure that the leadership and responsibility for the development and delivery of climate change mitigation and adaptation policies is clear, as well as a new long-term policy framework to ensure that policies introduced today do not undermine our ability to reduce emissions in the future. The Committee also recommends that a new and authoritative body be established within the Cabinet Office to drive forward policy and to diminish the potential for a conflict of objectives between departments. The Palestinian Strategic Report 2014-2015 Dr. Mohsen Mohammad Saleh, 2016-07-19. This annual referential report has become an essential classic in the academic realm of Palestinian Studies. It includes the latest and most recent statistical and analytic data on the various developments related to the Palestinian issue. Al-Zaytouna Center for Studies and Consultations in Beirut has published the Arabic version of the Palestinian Strategic Report 2014-2015 (PSR). The PSR is one of al-Zaytouna's most important academic studies published periodically in both English and Arabic. Today it can be surely asserted that PSR is a must-reference for every researcher and academic who are interested in the contemporary developments of the Palestinian issue and the Arab-Israeli conflict. The PSR reviews biennially the various developments concerning the Palestinian question in a comprehensive, objective, and academic manner. It offers a wealth of data, up-to-date statistics, and analyzes and offers an outlook of future events. The PSR 2014-2015 falls in 392 pages and seven chapters. Edited by Dr. Mohsen Mohammad Saleh, PSR 2014-2015 was written by 12 specialized researchers and reviewed by four consultants. The seven chapters cover the internal Palestinian scene, the Israeli-Palestinian scene, the Palestinian issue and the Arab world, the Palestinian issue and the Muslim world, the Palestinian issue and the international situation, the land and the holy sites, and the demographic, economic, and educational indicators. Chinese Recorder and
