Order In Paradox Myth Ritual :

Order in Paradox David Holmberg,2018-10-18 David H Holmberg here examines the social forms ritual practices and history of a western Tamang community of Himalayan Nepal Exploring the central question of ritual complexity Order in Paradox demonstrates how a religious system that contains Buddhist shamanic and sacrificial practices may be understood as a whole Holmberg begins by recounting the history of the Tamang and reexamining the meaning of caste tribe and ethnicity in greater Nepal Holmberg reveals how cultural patterns thought to be uniquely Tamang reflect this people s development of an involuted tribal form of Buddhist religious expression an evolution he interprets as a result in part of the unification of the Nepalese state Holmberg then offers descriptions of the culture mythic imagination and ritual field of the Tamang Exploring both structural and historical dimensions of Tamang rituals Holmberg shows how they form a system linked to a cultural logic of exchange upon which Tamang society is built He also sheds light on the relationship between gender and ritual considering in detail the close association between femaleness and the shamanic in Tamang culture

Order in Paradox David H. Holmberg,1989 Love and Honor in the Himalayas Ernestine McHugh,2001-01-22 A stunning emotionally charged intellectually stimulating and aesthetically crafted fieldwork memoir This is a book I will teach often recommend to colleagues and share with family and friends for its multifaceted delights Kirin Narayan University of Wisconsin Madison Liminality and Critical Event Studies Ian R. Lamond,Jonathan Moss,2020-03-28 This book explores and challenges the concept and experience of liminality as applied to critical perspectives in the study of events It will be of interest to researchers in event studies social and discursive psychology cultural and political sociology and social movement studies In addition it will provide interested general readers with new ways of thinking and reflecting on events Contributing authors undertake a discussion of the borders boundaries and areas of contestation between the established social anthropological concept of liminality and the emerging field of critical event studies By drawing these two perspectives closer together the collection considers tensions and resonances between them and uses those connections to enhance our understanding of both cultural and sporting events and offer fresh insight into events of activism protest and dissent

Buddhism Beyond the Monastery International Association for Tibetan Studies. Seminar,2009 Monasteries have been the locus classicus of the academic investigation of Tibetan religions This volume seeks to balance this emphasis with an exploration of the diverse religious specialists who operate outside of the monastery in Tibet and along the Himalayan belt The articles collected here depict Tantric professionals visionaries village lamas spirit mediums and female religious leaders whose loyalties reside in the noncelibate sphere but whose activities have had a significant impact on Tibetan religion Using methodologies drawn from anthropological and textual scholarship these seven essays bolster our understanding of religious practices and their performers beyond the monasteries of Central and Eastern Tibet Bhutan and India from historical times to the present day Selves in Time and Place Alfred Pach III,Debra Skinner,Dorothy Holland,1998-07-02 Recently anthropology has turned to accounts of persons in history history in persons focusing on how individuals and groups as agents both fashion and are fashioned by social political and cultural discourses and practices In this approach power agency and history are made explicit as individuals and groups work to constitute themselves in relation to others and within and against sociopolitical and historical contexts Contributors to this volume extend this emphasis drawing upon their ethnographic research in Nepal to examine closely how selves identities and experience are produced in dialogical relationships through time in a multi ethnic nation state and within a discourse of nationalism The diversity of peoples recent political transformations and nation building efforts make Nepal an especially rich locale to examine people s struggles to define and position themselves But the authors move beyond geographical boundaries to more theoretical terrain to problematize the ways in which people recreate or contest certain identities and positions Various authors explore how people positioned by gender ethnicity and locale use cultural genres to produce aspects of identities and experiences they examine how subjectivities agencies and cultural worlds co develop and are shaped through engagement with cultural forms and they portray the appropriation of multiple voices for self and group formation As such this collection offers a richly textured and complex accounting of the mutual constitution of selves and society
