National International Security:

National and International Security Michael Sheehan, 2018-01-18 This title was first published in 2000 This series brings together significant journal articles appearing in the field of comparative politics over the past 30 years The aim is to render accessible to teachers researchers and students an extensive range of essays to provide a basis for understanding the established terrain and new ground This volume introduces the undergraduate to a significant body of the periodical literature on the subject of national and international security

National, International, and Human Security Laura Neack, 2023-04-11 This text provides a thorough overview of how states pursue security against violence and how this pursuit paradoxically creates greater insecurity at the national international and individual levels The traditional insistence that states are the primary and most important actors makes security ultimately elusive This argument provides a compelling framework for students to understand the breadth and nuance of security at each level Case studies throughout the text bring life to the concepts This fully revised third edition includes discussion of the Russian invasion of Ukraine China and the Uyghurs the Covid 19 pandemic the January 6th Capitol insurrection Trump s attempt to overturn the 2020 election Mexico s use of its military in internal security the coup in Myanmar Orb n s Hungary China and Taiwan India and Pakistan US China competition China s Belt and Road Initiative Russia s Wagner Group North Korea s missile testing refugees in Poland and numerous other examples large and small The third edition features Highlighted cases to illustrate new security threats across the globe now listed at the start of each chapter Beginning of chapter Learning Objectives and End of chapter Discussion Questions that reinforce student learning and engagement The unique framework arguing that security remains elusive because of the ethic insisting that states are the most important actors
