Aden,2018-04-26 US Public Memory Rhetoric and the National Mall examines the nation s front yard understanding it as both a public face the United States presents to the world and a site where its less apparent moral story is told This book provides a uniquely thorough interdisciplinary and integrated examination of how the National Mall shares a moral story of the United States and in so doing reveals the soul of the nation The contributors explore 11 different memorials monuments and museums found across the Mall considering how each rhetorically remembers a key element of the nation s past what the rhetorical memory tells us about the nation s soul and how each site must thus be understood in relation to the commemorative landscape of the Mall

Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall Roger C. Aden,2018-09-15 Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall Displaced and Ephemeral Public Memories vividly illustrates that a nation s history is more complicated than the simple binary of remembered forgotten Some parts of history while not formally recognized within a commemorative landscape haunt those landscapes by virtue of their ephemeral or displaced presence Rather than being discretely contained within a formal sites these memories remain public by lingering along the edges and within the crevices of commemorative landscapes By integrating theories of haunting place and public memory this collection demonstrates that the National Mall often referred to as the nation s front yard might better be understood as the nation s attic because it hides those issues we do not want to address but cannot dismiss The neatly ordered installations and landscaping of the National Mall if one looks and listens closely reveal the messiness of US history From the ephemeral memories of protests on the Mall to the displaced but persistent presences of inequality each chapter in this book examines the ways in which contemporary public life in the US is haunted by incomplete efforts to close the book on the past The National Mall Newsletter ,2006 US Public
