Native Daughter:

From a Native Daughter Haunani-Kay Trask, 2021-05-25 Since its publication in 1993 From a Native Daughter a provocative well reasoned attack against the rampant abuse of Native Hawaiian rights institutional racism and gender discrimination has generated heated debates in Hawaii and throughout the world This 1999 revised work published by University of Hawaii Press includes material that builds on issues and concerns raised in the first edition Native Hawaiian student organizing at the University of Hawaii the master plan of the Native Hawaiian self governing organization Ka Lahui Hawaii and its platform on the four political arenas of sovereignty the 1989 Hawaii declaration of the Hawaii ecumenical coalition on tourism and a typology on racism and imperialism Brief introductions to each of the previously published essays brings them up to date and situates them in the current Native Hawaiian rights discussion

From a Native Daughter Haunani-Kay Trask, 1993 In this impassioned and provocative collection of 17 essays Trask a well known activist argues the case of indigenous Hawaiians persons of Polynesian descent who have been overwhelmed by the dominant culture She puts the native Hawaiian experience in its historical context as one of colonialism initiated by military invasion and sustained through military and economic occupation and oppression She also touches on the environmental devastation wrought by development on a beautiful and fragile ecosystem and on the cultural prostitution that occurs when native traditions become mere local color for swarms of tourists Trask examines the claims of Hawaiians to human rights and self determination before international tribunals This issue is given a larger frame of reference by a similar discussion of other Pacific island nations The author convincingly documents continued racism directed at Hawaii's native inhabitants including at the University of Hawaii where she teaches Hawaiian studies Uncompromising yet never shrill this volume is a welcome addition to the growing body of literature on indigenism the movement for the rights of native people around the world May Publisher's weekly viewed Sept 30 2022

Red, White & Black Frank B. Wilderson III, 2010-03-19 Red White one by an Indian director Skins Chris Eyre and one by a White director Monster's Ball Marc Foster These films present Red and Black people beleaguered by problems such as homelessness and the repercussions of incarceration They portray social turmoil in terms of conflict as problems that can be solved at least theoretically if not in the given narratives Wilderson maintains that at the narrative level they fail to recognize that the turmoil is based not in conflict but in fundamentally irreconcilable racial antagonisms Yet as he explains those antagonisms are unintentionally disclosed in the films non narrative strategies in decisions regarding matters such as lighting camera angles and sound
