Nato Opposition:

Violence against Kosovar Albanians, NATO's intervention 1998-1999 Laurence Binet, 2016-05-18 The Violence against Kosovar Albanians NATO's intervention 1998-1999 case study describes the constraints and dilemmas facing Médecins Sans Frontières teams that witnessed a process of terror and expulsion which they described as the deportation of Kosovar Albanians by Serb forces. It also described MSF's reaction to NATO aerial bombings and the control exercised over the refugee camps by this party to the conflict. Should MSF denounce the violence being committed against Kosovars at the risk of being excluded from access to these people and of encouraging the NATO intervention? Should MSF take a stance on the NATO intervention? What sort of relationship should be established with countries that were committed either militarily such as NATO members or politically Greece in the conflict and their civil societies? Should MSF raise the alarm about the absence of the UNHCR in the management of the refugee camps at the risk of reinforcing this marginalization? Is it justifiable to carry out an assessment mission that sacrifices the principle of operational independence by invoking an interpretation of the principle of impartiality that implies a responsibility to assist victims on both sides of a conflict? Implementation of the U.S. Arms Embargo (Against Portugal and South Africa, and Related Issues) United States. Congress. House. Foreign Affairs Committee, 1973

NATO's Northern Allies Gregory Flynn, 2021-01-26 This book first published in 1985 analyses the choices made by NATO's northern allies during the 1970s and 80s as well as the factors that produced these choices. Each country study investigates the historical background of the decision to align the existence of specific enduring security preferences and the way in which these have to the extent they have been reconciled in policy. The studies then examine defence policy priorities during tranquil periods, detail the factors responsible for promoting change in the way each country has formulated security priorities and look at the way in which disputes have been played out in domestic political life. Finally, the studies analyse the broad outline of future priorities at the end of the Cold War. Implementation of the U.S. Arms Embargo (against Portugal and South Africa, and Related Issues). NATO's Air War for Kosovo Benjamin S. Lambeth, 2001-11-16 This book offers a thorough appraisal of Operation Allied Force, NATO's 78-day air war to compel the president of Yugoslavia Slobodan Milošević to end his campaign of ethnic cleansing in Kosovo. The author sheds light both on the operation's strengths and on its most salient weaknesses. He outlines the key highlights of the air war and examines the various factors that interacted to induce Milošević to capitulate when he did. He then explores air power's most critical accomplishments in Operation Allied Force as well as the problems that hindered the operation both in its planning and in its execution. Finally, he assesses Operation Allied Force from a political and strategic perspective, calling attention to those issues that are likely to have the greatest bearing on future military policymaking. The book concludes that the air war, although by no means the only factor responsible for the allies' victory, certainly set the stage for Milošević's surrender by making it clear that he had little to gain by holding out It concludes that in the end Operation Allied Force s most noteworthy distinction may lie in the fact that the allies prevailed despite the myriad impediments they faced

SOVIET ACTIVE MEASURES HEARINGS BEFORE THE PERMANENT SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES NINETY-SEVENTH CONGRESS SECOND SESSION ,1982 Bernard Brodie and the Foundations of American Nuclear Strategy Barry Howard Steiner,1991 Steiner analyzes how and why Brodie s understanding of weapons of unparalleled explosive force led him to posit the need for revolutionary strategic thinking in broadminded analytic method and in the focus upon cities as nuclear targets He shows the tremendous effect Brodie s work had on the intellectual climate in which policy is determined particularly in his frequent combatting of conventional wisdom

Prosecuting War Crimes and Genocide Howard Ball,1999 Combining history politics and critical analysis he revisits the killing fields of Cambodia documents the three month Hutu machete genocide of about 800 000 Tutsi villagers in Rwanda and casts recent headlines from Kosovo in the light of these other conflicts
