Many Religions One Covenant:

Many Religions, One Covenant Joseph Ratzinger, 2011-02-09 Foreword by Scott Hahn In Many Religions One Covenant Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger spans the deep divides in modern Catholic scholarship to present a compelling biblical theology modern in its concerns yet classical in its breadth It is his classical mastery his ressourcement that enables the Cardinal to build a bridge Cardinal Ratzinger seeks to deepen our understanding of the Bible s most fundamental principle The covenant defines religion for Christians and Jews We cannot discern God s design or his will if we do not meditate upon his covenant The covenant then is the principle that unites the New Testament with the Old the Scriptures with Tradition and each of the various branches of theology with all the others The covenant does more than bridge the gaps between these elements it fills in the gaps so that biblical scholarship dogmatic theology and magisterial authority all stand on common ground solid ground

Christianity in the Modern World Ambrose Mong, 2022-01-27 The influence of religion on culture is as strong as ever but the shape of that influence is unique in today s pluralistic society In Christianity in the Modern World Ambrose Mong examines critically themes of religious commitment and tolerance attitudes towards other religions and the sociological aspects of religion and inter religious dialogue He provides an overview of factors that challenge traditional religion from the relationship between monotheistic and polytheistic beliefs to the history of tolerance and intolerance in the church and the future of secularism Following the global ethics formulated by the late Hans Kung Mong also engages with the dialogue between Jurgen Habermas and Joseph Ratzinger to provide an extensive defence of the importance of inter religious dialogue with particular relevance to multiple religious belonging in the Asian context Scholars of world religions will find Mong s analysis compelling while students will find his introduction to the historical dialectics underlying many of today s tensions illuminating

Evangelization as Interreligious Dialogue John C. Cavadini, Donald Wallenfang, 2019-08-21 What does Jesus have to do with Buddha What does Muhammad have to do with Krishna One of the most important tasks for theology in the twenty first century is interreligious dialogue Given the rapid process of globalization and the surge of information via the Internet travel and library networking today interreligious dialogue has become a necessary element within Christian theology that no longer can be avoided Evangelization as Interreligious Dialogue features eleven essays plus an extensive introduction that exercise a live conversation between religious others Divided into four thematic sections 1 Catholic approaches to interreligious dialogue 2 dialogues between Judaism and Christianity 3 dialogues between Islam and Christianity and 4 dialogues between Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity this volume conducts a sustained theological reflection on the current state of interreligious dialogue by signaling its hopeful promises and unrelenting challenges The reader will be invited to encounter the religious other firsthand and put his or her most cherished theological assumptions to the test This book aims to provoke an expansion of horizons for theological imagination as it exposes the basic dialectic of identity and difference as played out in the interaction between diverse religious beliefs practices and experiences and Spirit Scott Hahn, Dave Scott, 2006 Letter Spirit is a journal of Catholic biblical theology for the new millennium It seeks to foster deeper understanding of sacred Scripture and the divine liturgy of the Church This second volume of the journal The Authority of Mystery The Word of God and the People of God is inspired by the scholarship of Pope Benedict XVI especially Benedict's concerns about the relation of the Bible to faith in Christ The editors write in their introduction As we write in our introduction How to read the Bible is at bottom a question about the identity of Jesus Is he Jesus of Nazareth only or is he also the Christ the Son of the living God Did he have a divine mission to reveal the mystery of God or was he only a man like others Does he remain among us in sacrament and liturgy Letter Spirit is published annually by the St Paul Center for Biblical Theology a nonprofit research and educational institute founded by Dr Scott Hahn The journal is published in association with Emmaus Road Publishing The Bible and the University Zondervan, 2009-09-03 It is well known that the Western university gradually evolved from the monastic stadium via the cathedral schools of the twelfth century to become the remarkably vigorous and interdisciplinary European institutions of higher learning that transformed Christian intellectual culture in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries It is equally well known that subsequent disciplinary developments in higher education including the founding and flourishing of many of the most prestigious of North American universities owe equally to the Protestant and perhaps particularly Calvinist influence But that the secularized modern university that descended from these developments is now in something of an identity crisis is becoming widely and often awkwardly apparent The reason most often given for the crisis is our general failure to produce a morally or spiritually persuasive substitute for the authority that undergirded the intellectual culture of our predecessors This is frequently also a reason for the discomfort many experience in trying to address the problem for it requires an acknowledgement at least that the secularization hypothesis has proven inadequate as a basis for the sustaining of coherence and general intelligibility in the university curriculum Nowhere is this more apparent than in the disciplines of biblical studies and theology which once were the anchor or common point of reference for theological thought but which are now both marginalized in the curriculum and internally divided as to meaning and purpose even where the Church itself is concerned In this final volume of the Scripture and Hermeneutic Series a group of distinguished scholars have sought to understand the role of the Bible in relation to the disciplines in a fresh way Offered in a spirit of humility and experimentally the essays here consider the historic role of the Bible in the university the status of theological reflection regarding Scripture among the disciplines today the special role of Scripture in the development of law the humanities and social sciences and finally the way the Bible speaks to issues of academic freedom intellectual tolerance and religious liberty Contributors Include Dallas Willard William Abraham Al Wolters Scott Hahn Glenn Olsen Robert C Roberts Byron Johnson Robert Cochran Jr David I Smith John Sullivan Robert Lundin C Stephen Evans David Lyle Jeffrey Innovation within Tradition Mary Frances McKenna, 2015-09-01 Innovation within Tradition explores Joseph Ratzinger's biblical interpretation of women and salvation history Arguing that Ratzinger's concept of a female line in the Bible brings the female characters of Scripture to the fore Mary Frances McKenna shows how this illustrates his creative approach to theology and hermeneutics as well as his response to feminist theology Pivotal as well are questions around the findings on the use of history in theology and the potential for the continuing development and deepening of the church's comprehension of the meaning of revelation

Letter

New Covenant, 1999 Jesus Christ and the Religions Hans Waldenfels, 2009 The World's Religions After September 11 Arvind Sharma, 2009 Convening on the fifth anniversary of the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center the global congress The World's Religions after September 11 explored the negative and positive possibilities of the religious dimensions of life The presentations from the congress have been pulled together in this set which addresses religion's intersection with human rights spirituality science healing the media international diplomacy globalization war and peace and more This comprehensive set includes contributions from such well known scholars of religion as Arvind Sharma and a host of others from all the world's religious traditions This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Because of the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 the very concept of religion underwent a paradigm shift Instead of standing for virtue and piety peace and harmony the word religion also came to be inextricably associated with evil aggression and terror People around the world began to question whether the religious and secular dimensions of modern life can be reconciled whether the different religions of the world can ever coexist in harmony Indeed the very future of religion itself has sometimes seemed to be uncertain or at least suspect The volumes are 1 Religion War and Peace 2 Religion and Human Rights 3 The Interfaith Dimension 4 Spirituality Sic Et Non Stephen J. Pope, 2002 Stephen J Pope is associate professor of ethics and chairs the theology department at Boston College Charles Hefling associate professor of systematic theology at Boston College edits Method Journal of Lonergan Studies The Catholic World Report, 2000 The Downside Review, 2008 First Things, 2001 Neely's History of The Parliament of Religions and Religious Congresses at the World's Columbian Exposition Walter Raleigh Houghton, 1893 A chorus of faith as heard in the parliament of religions, held in Chicago, sept. 10-27, 1893, 1893 Elenchus of Biblica, 1999 Crisis, 2000 A journal of lay Catholic opinion The World's Congress of Religions John Wesley Hanson, 1894 40 Ans Après Nostra Aetate Christian-Jewish Dialogue of Montreal.
