March Of Communism 1939 Present:

The March of Communism, 1939-present Ian Frederick William Beckett, 1985 Examines life in the Soviet Union Warsaw Pact nations China the Middle East and Africa and describes the expanding force of communism

Theatres of Memory: Past and present in contemporary culture Raphael Samuel, 1994 This work offers an overview of how the past has been manipulated in art politicized and sold to the consumer yet takes issue with those who claim this interest in heritage is merely obsessive nostalgia The author covers a multitude of topics such as the Festival of Britain and conservation

The Black Book of Communism Stéphane Courtois, 1999 This international bestseller plumbs recently opened archives in the former Soviet bloc to reveal the accomplishments of communism around the world The book is the first attempt to catalogue and analyse the crimes of communism over 70 years

Commonsense Anticommunism Jennifer Luff, 2012-05-21 Between the Great War and Pearl Harbor conservative labor leaders declared themselves America's first line of defense against Communism In this surprising account Jennifer Luff shows how the American Federation of Labor fanned popular anticommunism but defended Communists civil liberties in the aftermath of the 1919 Red Scare The AFL's commonsense anticommunism she argues steered a middle course between the American Legion and the ACLU helping to check campaigns for federal sedition laws But in the 1930s frustration with the New Deal order led labor conservatives to redbait the Roosevelt administration and liberal unionists and abandon their reluctant civil libertarianism for red scare politics That frustration contributed to the legal architecture of federal anticommunism that culminated with the McCarthyist fervor of the 1950s Relying on untapped archival sources Luff reveals how labor conservatives and the emerging civil liberties movement debated the proper role of the state in policing radicals and grappled with the challenges to the existing political order posed by Communist organizers Surprising conclusions about familiar figures like J Edgar Hoover and unfamiliar episodes like a German plot to disrupt American munitions manufacture make Luff's story a fresh retelling of the interwar years

Road to the Killing Fields Wilfred P. Deac, 1997 In 1970 the small nation of Cambodia was sucked into the vortex of Cold War geopolitics a war whose denouement led to one of the worst bloodbaths in history Road to the Killing Fields is the first book to deal exclusively with the military aspects of how that tragedy developed Because U S involvement in that part of Southeast Asia was largely clandestine Americans have had little exposure to the events that led to the horrific citizen massacres known as the killing fields

A History of Eastern Europe 1918 to the Present Ian D. Armour, 2021-04-08 Why is Eastern Europe still different from Western Europe more than a quarter century after the collapse of Communism A History of Eastern Europe 1918 to the Present shows how the roots of this difference are based in Eastern Europe's tortured 20th century Eastern Europe emerged in 1918 as the lands between new states whose weakness vis vis Germany and Soviet Russia soon became obvious The region was the main killing field of the Second World War which visited unimaginable horrors on its inhabitants before their liberation by the Soviets in 1945 The imposition of Communist dictatorships on the region ironically only deepened Eastern Europe's backwardness. Even in the post-Communist period its problems continue to make it a fertile breeding ground for nationalism and political extremism. A History of Eastern Europe 1918 to the Present explores the comparative backwardness of Eastern Europe and how this has driven strategies of modernisation; it looks at the ways in which the region has served as a giant test tube for political experimentation and in particular at the enduring strength of nationalism which since 1989 has re-emerged more virulent than ever. This book is the essential textbook for any student of 20th century Eastern Europe.
