Muslim Behaviour:

Morals and Manners in Islam Marwan Ibrahim Al-Kaysi, 2015-06-01 Morals and Manners in Islam is a brief yet comprehensive handbook for Muslims and those non Muslims interested in acquiring a broad knowledge of the Muslim way of life The book's contents derived mainly from the Qur'an and the Sunnah the main sources of jurisprudence are listed in points format

Muslim Childhood Jonathan Scourfield, Sophie Gilliat-Ray, Asma Khan, Sameh Otri, 2013-10-31 How do we learn to be religious To make sense of this process should we emphasise the habitual reinforcement of bodily rituals Or the active role of individuals in making decisions about faith at key moments Or should we turn to cognitive science to explain the universal structures on which religiosity is built And how does a relatively devout minority pass on religion in a generally secular Western context What significance does religion have for family life in this situation And how does a religious identity interact with other kinds of collective identification for example with a nation ethnic group or a locality These are some of the questions that Muslim Childhood deals with This book is about ordinary British Muslims everyday religious socialisation of children in early and middle childhood It provides a detailed description of how Muslim families in a secular Western context attempt to pass on their faith to the next generation It is rooted in detailed qualitative research with 60 Muslim families in one British city The authors own analysis of survey data suggests that Muslims in the UK more effectively pass on their faith to the next generation than other religious groups This book is in part an attempt to explain why that might be

The Anthropology of Islam Gabriele Marranci, 2008-03-01 An increasing number of people have questions about Islam and Muslims But how can we approach and study Islam after September 11th Which is the best methodology to understand an Islam that is changing in a globalized world The Anthropology of Islam argues that Islam today needs to be studied as a living religion through the observation of everyday Muslim life Drawing on extensive original fieldwork Marranci provides provocative analyses of Islam and its relation to issues such as identities politics culture power and gender The Anthropology of Islam is unprecedented in its innovative and challenging discussion about fieldwork among Muslims and its ethnographically based interpretations of contemporary aspects of Islam in a post September 11th society The book will appeal to those in anthropology and beyond who see and are interested in investigating the unsettled place of Islam in our multicultural society
