Major versus Minor? - Languages and Literatures in a Globalized World Theo D'haen, Iannis Goerlandt, Roger D. Sell, 2015-09-15 Do the notions of World Lingua Franca and World Literature now need to be firmly relegated to an imperialist cum colonialist past Or can they be rehabilitated in a practical and equitable way that fully endorses a politics of recognition For scholars in the field of languages and literatures this is the central dilemma to be faced in a world that is increasingly globalized In this book the possible banes and benefits of globalization are illuminated from many different viewpoints by scholars based in Africa Asia Europe North America and Oceania Among their more particular topics of discussion are language spread language hegemony and language conservation literary canons literature and identity and literary anthologies and the bearing of the new communication technologies on languages and literatures alike Throughout the book however the most frequently explored opposition is between languages or literatures perceived as major and others perceived as minor two terms which are sometimes qualitative in connotation sometimes quantitative and sometimes both at once depending on who is using them and with reference to what AERA. ,1929 The Reality Record and Builder ,1909
