Engaging the Doctrine of Jesus (and Mary) Matthew

Levering,2025-03-10 The six chapters of this book focus upon Jesus conception and birth from a virgin his authoritative teaching his miracles his cross his resurrection and his ascension The purpose of the book is to articulate and defend the truth of these salvific mysteries as presented to us in Scripture In addition to conversing extensively with historical critical biblical scholarship the chapters make recourse to the theological tradition from the church fathers onward with Thomas Aquinas as a touchstone Levering seeks to make a case for believing in Jesus At the same time he shows how each of these mysteries is intimately linked with a truth about Mary the Mother of Jesus thus arguing for the integral relationship of Christology and Mariology Mary enacts the reception of the Lord by God s faithful people the New Adam never chooses to be without the New Eve in God s new covenant family The Christology offered in this book is therefore both attuned to historical studies of Jesus and Second Temple Judaism and at the same time deeply traditional in a contemporary Catholic and ecumenical way

Mary's Bodily Assumption Matthew Levering,2014-11-24 In Mary's Bodily Assumption Matthew Levering presents a contemporary explanation and defense of the Catholic doctrine of Mary s bodily Assumption He asks How does the Church justify a doctrine that does not have explicit biblical or first century historical evidence to support it With the goal of exploring this question more deeply he divides his discussion into two sections one historical and the other systematic Levering s historical section aims to retrieve the rich Mariological doctrine of the mid twentieth century He introduces the development of Mariology in Catholic Magisterial documents focusing on Pope Pius XII s encyclical Munificentissimus Deus of 1950 in which the bodily Assumption of Mary was dogmatically defined and two later Magisterial documents Vatican II s Lumen Gentium and Pope John Paul II s Redemptoris Mater Levering addresses the work of the neo scholastic theologians Joseph Duhr Alo s Janssens and R ginald Garrigou Lagrange before turning to the great theologians of the nouvelle th ologie Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Louis Bouyer Joseph Ratzinger and their emphasis on biblical typology Using John Henry Newman as a guide Levering organizes his systematic section by the three pillars of the doctrine on which Mary s Assumption rests biblical typology the Church as authoritative interpreter of divine revelation under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the fittingness of Mary s Assumption in relation to the other mysteries of faith Levering s ecumenical contribution is a significant engagement with Protestant biblical scholars and theologians it is also a reclamation of Mariology as a central topic in Catholic theology

Blessed Mary and the Monks of England Matthew J. Mills,2024

In the study of historical Mariology the monastic communities of England in the eleventh and twelfth centuries the period so dramatically interrupted and reshaped by the Norman conquest of 1066 receive too little attention This monastic age was a time of great flourishing for both religious life and Mariology marked by new currents of prayer and thought In this volume Matthew Mills uncovers and draws together vibrant contributions to Marian doctrine and devotion by some of those then living in England under the sixth century Rule of St Benedict the Benedictines and their successors the Cistercians In a thematic unfolding of Mary's life and identity from conception to assumption and intercession a picture emerges of a Mariology shaped by the constant of monastic liturgy anchored in the biblical and patristic wisdom cherished and transmitted by the Venerable Bede and animated by love Towering figures such as Anselm of Canterbury and Ired of Rievaulx are also placed within a wider landscape alongside lesser known but still significant others including the Cistercian abbot John of Forde royal confessor and pioneer of Marian exegesis of the Song of Songs England's monastic Mariology was colored by Greek as well as Latin influences and touched by key experiences of the contemporary church at large apocalyptic disappointment reform sacramentalism and intense yearning for salvation In particular Mills brings to light the significance of Mary for monks understanding of their own profession their mother and their lady Mary was also their icon and exemplar of life in St Benedict's school for the Lord's service Rule Prol 45
