Previously Uncollected Writings Gertrude Stein,1974      1. Reflection on the Atomic Bomb Gertrude Stein,1974

The Unfinished Atomic Bomb Cassandra Atherton,David Lowe,Alyson Miller,2017-12-26 In its diversity of perspectives

The Unfinished Atomic Bomb Shadows and Reflections is testament to the ways in which contemplations of the A bomb are endlessly shifting rarely fixed on the same point or perspective The compilation of this book is significant in this regard offering Japanese American Australian and European perspectives In doing so the essays here represent a complex series of interpretations of the bombing of Hiroshima and its implications both for history and for the present day From Kuznick s extensive biographical account of the Hiroshima bomb pilot Paul Tibbets and contentious questions about the moral and strategic efficacy of dropping the A bomb and how that has resonated through time to Jacobs reflections on the different ways in which Hiroshima and its memorialization are experienced today each chapter considers how this moment in time emerges persistently in public and cultural consciousness The discussions here are often difficult sometimes controversial and at times oppositional reflecting the characteristics of A bomb scholarship more broadly The aim is to explore the various ways in which Hiroshima is remembered but also to consider the ongoing legacy and impact of atomic warfare the reverberations of which remain powerfully felt      Reflections on the Atomic Bomb Gertrude Stein,1975      The Poetics of Information Overload Paul Stephens,2015-07-30 Information overload is a subject of vital ubiquitous concern in our time The Poetics of Information Overload reveals a fascinating genealogy of information saturation through the literary lens of American modernism Although technology has typically been viewed as hostile or foreign to poetry Paul Stephens outlines a countertradition within twentieth and twenty first century literature in which avant garde poets are centrally involved with technologies of communication data storage and bureaucratic control Beginning with Gertrude Stein and Bob Brown Stephens explores how writers have been preoccupied with the effects of new media since the advent of modernism He continues with the postwar writing of Charles Olson John Cage Bern Porter Hannah Weiner Bernadette Mayer Lyn Hejinian and Bruce Andrews and concludes with a discussion of conceptual writing produced in the past decade By reading these works in the context of information systems Stephens shows how the poetry of the past century has had as a primary focus the role of data in human life      Anecdotal Modernity James Dorson,Florian Sedlmeier,MaryAnn Snyder-Körber,Birte

Wege,2020-12-16 Modernity is made and unmade by the anecdotal Conceived as a literary genre a narrative element of criticism and most crucially a mode of historiography the anecdote illuminates the convergences as well as the fault lines cutting across modern practices of knowledge production The volume explores uses of the anecdotal in exemplary case studies from the threshold of the early modern to the present      Modernism the Morning After Bob Perelman,2017-04-18

In Modernism the Morning After Bob Perelman scrutinizes a number of long held modernist dogmas in order to articulate a more capacious model for thinking about modernism past present and future Throughout his career Perelman has focused on the persistence of modernist ambition in poetry with all of its admirable articulations and tragicomic short circuits Poetry it turns out is not simply news that stays news as Ezra Pound postulated Instead as Perelman demonstrates poetry often gropes toward whatever news can be found in the broader contexts of public speech the cultural commons the almost real or much too real language of people and our hyperactive media Book jacket Interpreting Science at Museums and Historic Sites Debra A. Reid, Karen-Beth G. Scholthof, David D. Vail, 2023-09-11 Ask not what science can do for you but what public history can do for science Interpreting Science in Museums and Historic Sites stresses the untapped potential of historical artifacts to inform our understanding of scientific topics It argues that science gains ground when contextualized in museums and historic sites Engaging audiences in conversations about hot topics such as health and medical sciences or climate change and responses to it mediated by a history museum can emphasize scientific rigor and the time lag between discovery and confirmation of societal benefit Interpreting Science emphasizes the urgency of this work provides a toolkit to start and sustain the work shares case studies that model best practice and resources useful to facilitate and sustain a science infused public history

Radioactive Ghosts Gabriele Schwab, 2020-10-20 A pioneering examination of nuclear trauma the continuing and new nuclear peril and the subjectivities they generate Amid resurgent calls for widespread nuclear energy and limited nuclear war the populations that must live with the consequences of these decisions are increasingly insecure The nuclear peril combined with the looming threat of climate change means that we are seeing the formation of a new kind of subjectivity humans who are in a position of perpetual ontological insecurity In Radioactive Ghosts Gabriele Schwab articulates a vision of these nuclear subjectivities that we all live with Focusing on the legacies of the Manhattan Project Hiroshima and nuclear energy politics Radioactive Ghosts takes us on a tour of the little seen sides of our nuclear world Examining devastating uranium mining on Native lands nuclear sacrifice zones the catastrophic accidents at Chernobyl and Fukushima and the formation of a new transspecies ethics Schwab shows how individuals threatened with extinction are creating new adaptations defenses and communal spaces Ranging from personal accounts of experiences with radiation to in depth readings of literature film art and scholarly works Schwab gives us a complex idiosyncratic and personal analysis of one of the most overlooked issues of our time

Beyond the Mushroom Cloud Yuki Miyamoto, 2012 This monograph explores the ethics and religious sensibilities of a group of the hibakusha survivors of 1945 s atomic bombings Unfortunately their ethic of not retaliation but reconciliation has not been much known perhaps obscured by the mushroom cloud However it is worth examining their philosophy as it could offer resources to reconcile the contested issues of public memories especially in the post 9 11 era alphabetical catalog of her major publications an annotated bibliography of Stein criticism and a biographical dictionary of friends and enemies Essential Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Apocalypse and After Bruce Comens,1995 Apocalypse and After examines the development of Modernism into Postmodernism through the works of three major American poets Modernism s struggle to develop a new global strategy was to a great extent a response to the catastrophe of World War I while the Postmodern resort to fragmentary tactics stems from Modernist strategy s implications in World War II and the atomic bomb The final chapter adumbrates the emergence of a paramodernism characteristic of our own time The book is innovative in its many readings of specific poems and in its larger assessments of the poets careers while the method of analysis it develops is particularly noteworthy for its ability to relate nuances of formal innovation to the writers diverse political contexts and programs The Effects of Atomic Weapons Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory,1950
