

A sunset over a city with a red structure and blue rope in the foreground. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of orange, yellow, and pink. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm glow. In the foreground, a red structure, possibly a boat's mast or a piece of art, curves across the left side. A thick blue rope is visible on the far left. The city skyline is visible in the background, with buildings and a body of water.

You believe it's cold, but if you build yourself a snowhouse it's warm. You think it's white, but at times it looks pink, and another time it's blue. It can be softer than anything, and then again harder than stone. Nothing is certain.
