GIVE IT A GO

THE KEY TO SUCCESSFUL RELATIONSHIPS

GIVE

Be kind, respectful, & avoid yelling or threats. Try not to criticize or judge the other person. Don't pin the blame on me - I'll pin the blame on you. Don't jump in with your thoughts.

GENTLE

Don't forget to let them jump in with your thoughts. Show empathy & try to understand their feelings. Don't forget to let them jump in with your thoughts.

Whether navigating a difficult conversation or sharing a joyful moment, how we communicate makes all the difference!

Don't forget to let them jump in with your thoughts.

Be curious & ask questions to show you care. Make eye contact & show you're really listening.

INTERESTED

Show your interest in others' feelings and experiences. Better communication using...

GIVE

Build stronger relationships. Foster trust & respect. Say what you mean.

BYE BYE

TO UNNECESSARY DRAMA.

GIVE

VALIDATE

EASY MANNER

Allow the conversation time & space to develop. Stay calm, use a gentle tone and relaxed body language.

Smile & use humor to lighten the mood with a smile or a friendly joke.

GIVE

(Don't forget to keep it kind!)

I hear you

You have a point

Validate the other person's feelings by acknowledging & saying things like "I get it" or "That makes sense." Try respecting their take on the situation even if it's different from yours.

Pocket Guide To Great Relationships:

Healthy Relationships Rose Muraguri,2013-07-17 Healthy Relationships The Fundamental Pocket Guide By Rose Muraguri Love is a central feature in almost every person's life Some people have said that love is blind while others describe love as breaking all barriers may they be of color race creed or faith class or status Love is said to be jealous to be an indescribable feeling Whatever the case the human being was created as a loving being and out of love therefore love is a beautiful thing and should be cherished by all who experience it Many people in love relations would rather not be bothered by other aspects of the person they love possibly that is why it is said to be blind However love is wrapped up in relationships and so to enjoy that love one will have to take care of the wholesome friendship There is a conflict between how the young and the old view relationships This is particularly true between parents and their teens or young adults Young people often feel greatly misunderstood and judged in how they engage and handle relationships So when they have questions about relationships or are experiencing a difficult time many do not say a word to their parents or counselors This book is designed to help them make and maintain healthy love relationships Friendship and relationships are more likely to thrive when the people involved take control So this pocket guide is for you in relationship and those who will be getting into love relations in the future It empowers you to take control of your relationship It explores some simple facts about creating a healthy relationship It is about making your relationship fun This guide uses some probe questions that any person considering a relationship should ask themselves if they hope to have a fun enjoyable and successful relationship So if you have questions and you feel like you do not have somebody to confide in your options to a successful relationship are in here and you need not panic Older people whose relationships continue to radiate the energy and romance of youth and those who may be experiencing some turbulence in their love life will find this guide a gem to keep close

A Pocket Guide to Great Relationships James J. McCarthy,1995-05 I've always felt there should be a simple book that addressed relationship education something so simple and easy to read that anyone from 14 to 104 could read it and grasp the concepts More relationship education is needed in our culture We recognize relationships are healthy interactions between people but we still don't have all the skills to create them This book attempts to bridge that gap
