Preaching the Miracles Dallas A. Brauning, 1998 While this book offers information for the sermon writer the design of its contents provides more than the ho hum Brauning avoids presenting a ready made cloak of words for a morning sermon Instead she invites preachers and their audiences to explore the gap between the back then and the now This not only helps to answer questions it generates them a crucial element in understanding the miracles of Jesus Five sections are devoted to each of the nine miracles in Cycle A Text For easy access the entire lectionary text is provided preventing the need to flip back and forth to the Bible What s Happening This gives a synopsis of points of action within each miracle story By reviewing the story action its movement conflict and change or resolution are defined Connecting Points Conversations This section offers the central material of each chapter Here Brauning engages the preacher in an imaginary exchange before the text is given its usual preparatory attention A visit with main characters and an occasional bystander nudging readers toward stepping into their sandals This section invites the preacher and listening audience to ask relevant questions thus expanding their understanding Words Significant terms are examined While this work is not intended as a scholarly study it assists in placing things in proper context Gospel Parallels This section highlights similarities and differences among parallel stories and other gospels A helpful word study and bibliography are also included This series from Brauning has proven to be a favorite among preachers Dallas A Brauning received the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Divinity degrees from the Chicago Theological Seminary A full time writer Brauning has served churches in Colorado and Nebraska She and her husband both ordained ministers in the United Church of Christ live in Friend Nebraska Ordinary Words,

Extraordinary Deeds John W. Wurster, 2003 The stories of Jesus miracles can be challenging to modern sensibilities conditioned as we are to believe that there must be a logical explanation for water being turned into wine or nets suddenly overflowing with fish But John Wurster suggests that for contemporary preachers and their listeners the most important question raised by these remarkable accounts is not How did they happen but rather What do they mean Ordinary Words Extraordinary Deeds helps answer that question by exploring the theological significance of the nine miracle stories appearing in Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary Each chapter includes the biblical text along with interpretive reflections that set the passage in its literary context and connect it to major themes of the gospel writer There s also a section investigating a variety of preaching possibilities and offering brief thoughts about what these texts tell us about the sacraments since like the miracles the sacraments make grace evident in ways we can touch and feel Specifically geared for the busy pastor with limited time this is an excellent volume packed with valuable idea starters and rich material for sermon development But it s also stimulating reading for anyone who wants greater insight into these marvelous stories of God s power at work Chapter titles include The Star Matthew 2 1 12 Wedding At Cana John 2 1 11 Jesus Transfigured Luke 9 28 36 The Lepers Luke 17 11 19 and five more John W Wurster is a graduate of Trinity University in San Antonio Texas B A summa cum laude Princeton Theological Seminary M Div and Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary D Min Currently the pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Findlay Ohio Wurster has previously served congregations in Texas Ohio New Jersey and Pennsylvania He is the author of What If What They Say Is True CSS a collection of sermons on prophetic texts A Bucket Full of Miracles Jeff Wedge,2004 The stories of Jesus miracles are challenging to modern sensibilities with today s scientific and technological knowledge we have become somewhat jaded finding it difficult to be really amazed by anything we encounter And the miracle stories are so familiar that we rarely muster any sense of wonder about them especially if we look for logical explanations But Jeff Wedge maintains that in order to understand the miracles of the Bible we must recapture this sense of wonder for underlying them is the joy excitement and mystery of the world in which we live Packed with valuable idea starters and rich material for sermon development A Bucket Full Of Miracles provides a detailed exploration of the nine miracle stories in Cycle A Each chapter includes the biblical text along with an examination of the words the people and the action of the lesson as well as several illustrations and possible preaching approaches But this book is much more than just a sermon preparation resource it s also stimulating reading for anyone who wants greater insight into these marvelous stories of God s power at work Preaching the Miracles, Series III, Cycle B Harold H. Lentz,1999 One cannot read the miracles of Christ reported in the gospel of Mark without being convinced of the divinity of Christ John Mark repeatedly records Christ s divine powers over nature illness severe physical handicaps and sin These events in which God s power entered into human situations had profound effects on those who witnessed them and they continue to teach us great spiritual truths today Pastors will find this volume packed with valuable idea starters for their sermons For each miracle in Cycle B Harold Lentz shares background material sermon approaches and several illustrations Instead of wondering What shall I preach on this Sunday you ll be thinking I can t wait to share all this information with my people Harold H Lentz served as pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Ashland Ohio prior to becoming the president of Carthage College in Kenosha Wisconsin As a pastor he increased the active membership of his congregation from 725 to 1 067 His Sunday morning sermons were broadcast and according to surveys were heard by more listeners than popular national preachers As president of Carthage College Lentz oversaw the relocation of its campus from Carthage Illinois to Kenosha Wisconsin This multi million dollar effort resulted in a quadrupling of enrollment The recipient of three honorary degrees Dr Lentz earned his Ph D with honors from Yale University where he was named a University Fellow He also holds degrees from Wittenberg University Hamma School of Theology and Oberlin College This is his fifth publication Rhetoric, Religion and the Civil Rights Movement, 1954-1965 Davis W. Houck, David E. Dixon, 2006 V 2 Building upon their critically acclaimed first volume Davis W Houck and David E Dixon s new Rhetoric Religion and the Civil Rights Movement 1954 1965 is a recovery project of enormous proportions Houck and Dixon have again combed church archives government documents university libraries and private collections in pursuit of the civil rights movement s long buried eloquence Their new work presents fifty new speeches and sermons delivered by both famed leaders and little known civil rights activists on national stages and in quiet shacks The speeches carry novel insights into the ways in which individuals and communities utilized religious rhetoric to upset the racial status quo in divided America during the civil rights era Houck and Dixon s work illustrates again how a movement so prominent in historical scholarship still has much to teach us Publisher Sermons on the First Readings: Cycle C Steven E. Albertin, Charles D. Reeb, Richard Gribble, 2003 Filled with wit insight and inspiration this anthology includes sermons for every Sunday and major celebration throughout the Christian year based on the First Readings from Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary Three outstanding preachers from diverse denominational backgrounds interpret texts from the Old Testament and Acts in fresh ways that proclaim the good news for the twenty first century Their powerful messages remind us that the Hebrew scriptures are much more than just ancient history and explore what they mean for us today Proclaiming timeless themes of justice and righteousness as well as God s faithful covenant and enduring forgiveness these imaginative homilies call us to lead better more God centered lives This is an essential resource that s useful for Fresh homiletical approaches to the lectionary texts Preaching illustrations A clearer understanding of scripture passages Adult study and discussion groups Personal devotions and Bible study on each Sunday s texts The illustrations in these sermons taken from both classical and common sources as well as personal experiences are worth the price of the book I ll buy any book of sermons that gives me one or two good illustrations that are fresh and believable Charles Reeb is a master at illustrating his points John K Bergland Former Professor of Preaching and Associate Dean Duke Divinity School Former editor Abingdon Preaching Annual Preaching the Miracles Dallas A. Brauninger, 1996 While this book offers information for the sermon writer the design of its contents provides more than the ho hum It avoids presenting a ready made cloak of words for a morning sermon Instead it invites preachers and their audiences to explore the gap between the back then and the now It not only helps answer questions it generates them a crucial element in understanding the miracles of Jesus Five sections are devoted to each of the nine miracles in Cycle B all from Mark Text For easy access the entire lectionary text is provided preventing the need to flip back and forth to the Bible What s Happening This gives a synopsis of points of action within each miracle story By reviewing the story action readers define its movement the conflict and the change or resolution Connecting Points Conversations This section offers the central material of each chapter Here Brauninger engages the preacher in an imaginary exchange before the text is given its usual preparatory attention A visit with main characters and an occasional bystander nudges readers toward stepping into their sandals This section invites the preacher and listening audience This section invites the preacher and the listening audience to ask questions relevant for them thus expanding their questioning and therefore their understanding Words Here significant words are examined While this work is not intended as a scholarly study it assists in placing things in proper context Gospel Parallels This section highlights similarities and differences among parallel stories and other gospels There is also a helpful bibliography included This new series from Brauninger promises to be a favorite among preachers Through it audiences will become aware of how God speaks to them through miracle stories and will enable them to hear their inner voice and more clearly understand it themselves Dallas A Brauninger received her Master of Divinity and Doctor of Divinity degrees from the Chicago Theological Seminary A full time writer Brauninger has served churches in Colorado and Nebraska She and her husband also an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ live in West Point Nebraska This is her seventh book Your Faith Has Made You Well Charles L. Aaron, 2005 The moving accounts of Jesus power to cast out demons and heal physical ailments are compelling preaching texts but they also present a tangle of problems This book helps you negotiate a homiletic minefield with a detailed exploration of eleven miracle narratives appearing in Cycle B It s packed with stimulating ideas and illustrations for developing dynamic sermons including a chapter with numerous examples of contemporary miracles and healings This is an admirable example of pastoral theology at its best Aaron s discussions of the historical background and theological significance of each text are thoroughly informed and articulate Equally helpful are the insights he brings to the understanding of the pastoral implications of each text and the strategies appropriate to preaching the text David Bartlett Yale Divinity School The Miracles of Jesus and Their Flip Side Jerry L. Schmalenberger, 2000 The miracles of Jesus are some of the most striking passages in the New Testament they bring the power of God up close and personal by dramatically rearranging human situations and teaching us great spiritual truths But how can we translate the sometimes arcane historical content of the miracle stories in a way that will be meaningful to contemporary sensibilities Jerry Schmalenberger has come up with an original solution in these thirteen well crafted sermons on miracle stories contained in the Revised Common Lectionary Using the analogy of old 45 rpm records which were usually released with a hit side and a flip side Schmalenberger shares a structure for presenting the miracles in narrative form He initially focuses on the traditional approach to each miracle the A or hit side and then offers a fresh look at the other side of the story the B or flip side Schmalenberger s punch contemporary language and narrative style produce hard hitting and inspirational messages that offer a unique twist in the interpretation of these fascinating stories Jerry L Schmalenberger has taught speech and communication at Wittenberg University and Urbana College and was a parish pastor for 29 years serving some of the nation s largest Lutheran congregations Recently retired as professor of parish ministry and president of Pacific Lutheran

Theological Seminary in Berkeley California he now serves as a Global Mission Volunteer for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Schmalenberger has preached and taught throughout the world most recently teaching with the faculty of the Lutheran Seminary in Hong Kong Schmalenberger has also taught at seminaries in Germany Jamaica Argentina Surinam Indonesia and Liberia A graduate of Wittenberg University and Hamma School of Theology in Springfield Ohio where he received his D Min degree Schmalenberger was honored by Wittenberg with a D Div degree Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1997-12 The Cumulative Book Index ,1999 Preaching the Parables Dallas A. Brauning,2003 Jesus used his parables to teach ordinary persons with mundane concerns about the kingdom of God and because these simple stories contain universal truth that transcends time and culture they still strike a powerful chord with us nearly two millennia later Preaching the Parables provides a gold mine of background material on each of the eighteen parables appearing in Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary Dallas Brauning brings a fresh imaginative approach to these familiar texts probing them to reveal what they tell us about God and inviting further reflection on what they mean for us today Preaching the Parables is more than just a sermon preparation resource it s also stimulating reading for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of how God speaks to us through the parables Modeled on the format of Brauning s popular Preaching the Miracles series each chapter in Preaching the Parables includes five sections Text the entire parable text is reproduced eliminating the need to flip back and forth to a Bible What s Happening a synopsis of points of action within the story defining its movement conflict and change or resolution Spadework significant terms are examined through a survey of Hebrew and New Testament writings Parallel Scripture similarities and differences with parallel stories in the other Gospels are highlighted where the story is unique parallel words and concepts are examined Chat Room readers are creatively engaged in a variety of imaginary online exchanges ranging from interviews with parable characters to browsing ideas to self driven conversations This permission giving resource encourages the reader to develop questions for the text It s the kind of yeast that gives rise to new shades and flavors of meaning Preaching the Parables nourishes a fresh receptivity to the speaking of the Spirit of God in the lectionary passage and in life Nancy B Rohde Interim Pastor Charlevoix United Church of Christ Charlevoix Michigan What a refreshingly helpful way to exegete the text The succinct but substantive Spadework Parallel Scripture and Chat Room sections provide the preacher with an exciting array of ways to understand and give meaning to the parables Brauning s writing will afford the reader many Ahas Diana Coberly Pastor First Congregational United Church of Christ Great Bend Kansas Dallas A Brauning a cum laude graduate of Albion College received her Master of Divinity degree and an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Chicago Theological Seminary A full time writer she has served churches in Colorado and Nebraska Brauning is the recipient of denominational honor for outstanding ministry to persons with disabilities and their families and she is the editor of That All May Worship And Serve her denomination s national disabilities ministry newsletter She and her husband both ordained ministers in the
